Dear Judy,

All the luck in the world to a swell Arty sis. I know you'll go far in future years.

Love,

Patty Hoffe

Dear Judy,
It has been fun being in your class and I wish you lots of luck in the future.

Sincerely,
Sybil Elkins

Dear Judy,
I can't go to the ball game with you this Saturday as I have to go to the dentist. But I would like very much to go to Jamestown Park with you next week. I would be 10 years old on the 24th of May and I'm sure I'll have a grand time.

Your friend,

Lewis and Clark High School

Spokane, Washington

EIGHTH ANNUAL EDITION

Edited and Published by Staff Members From The Year's Graduating Classes

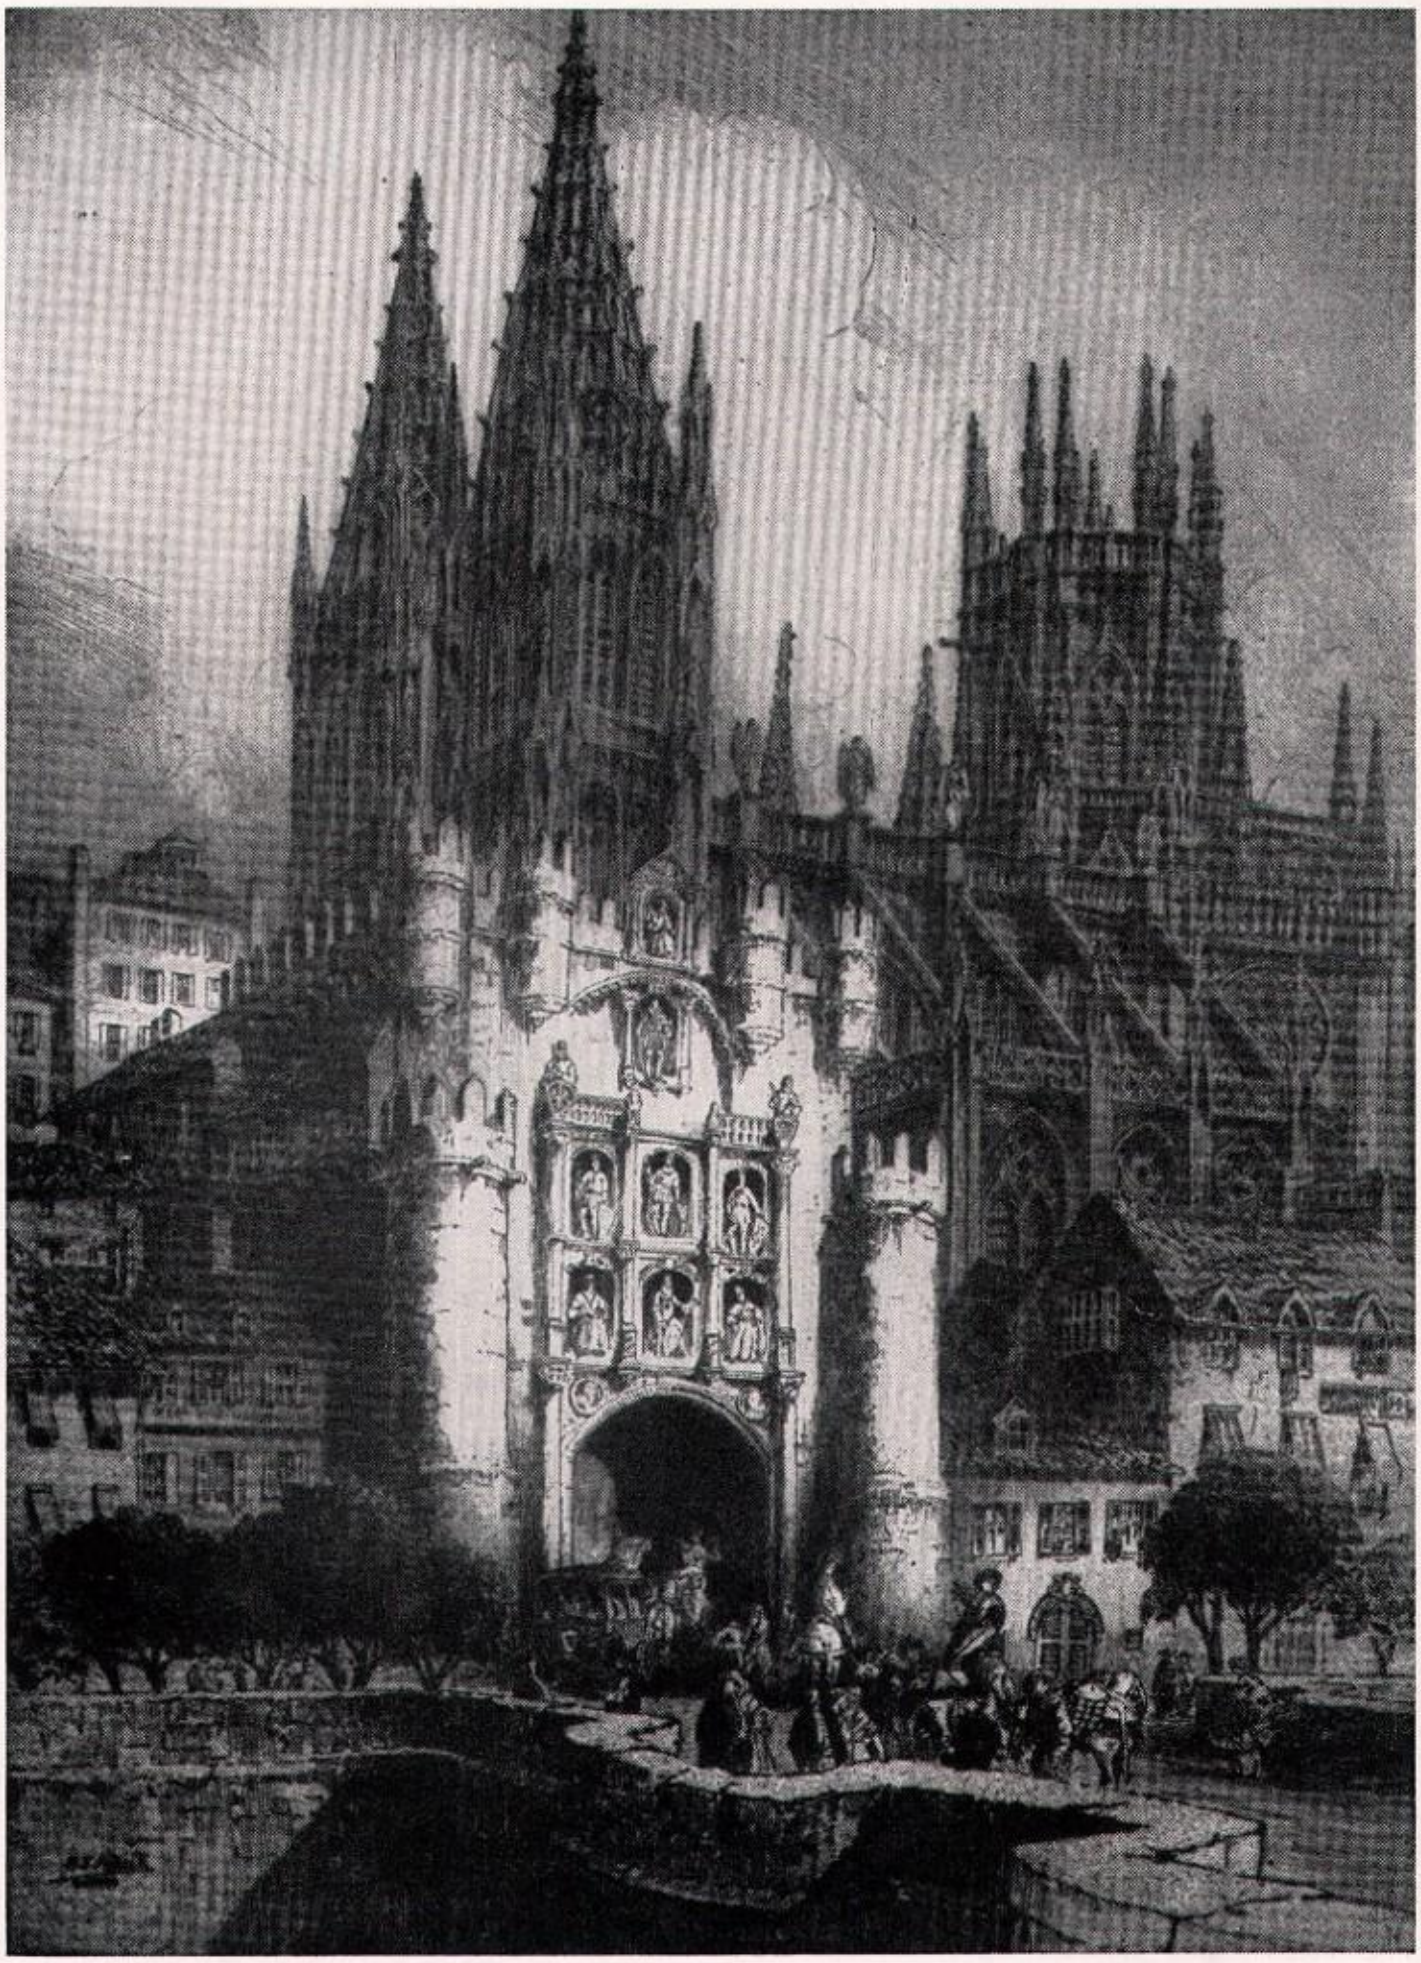
Advisers:

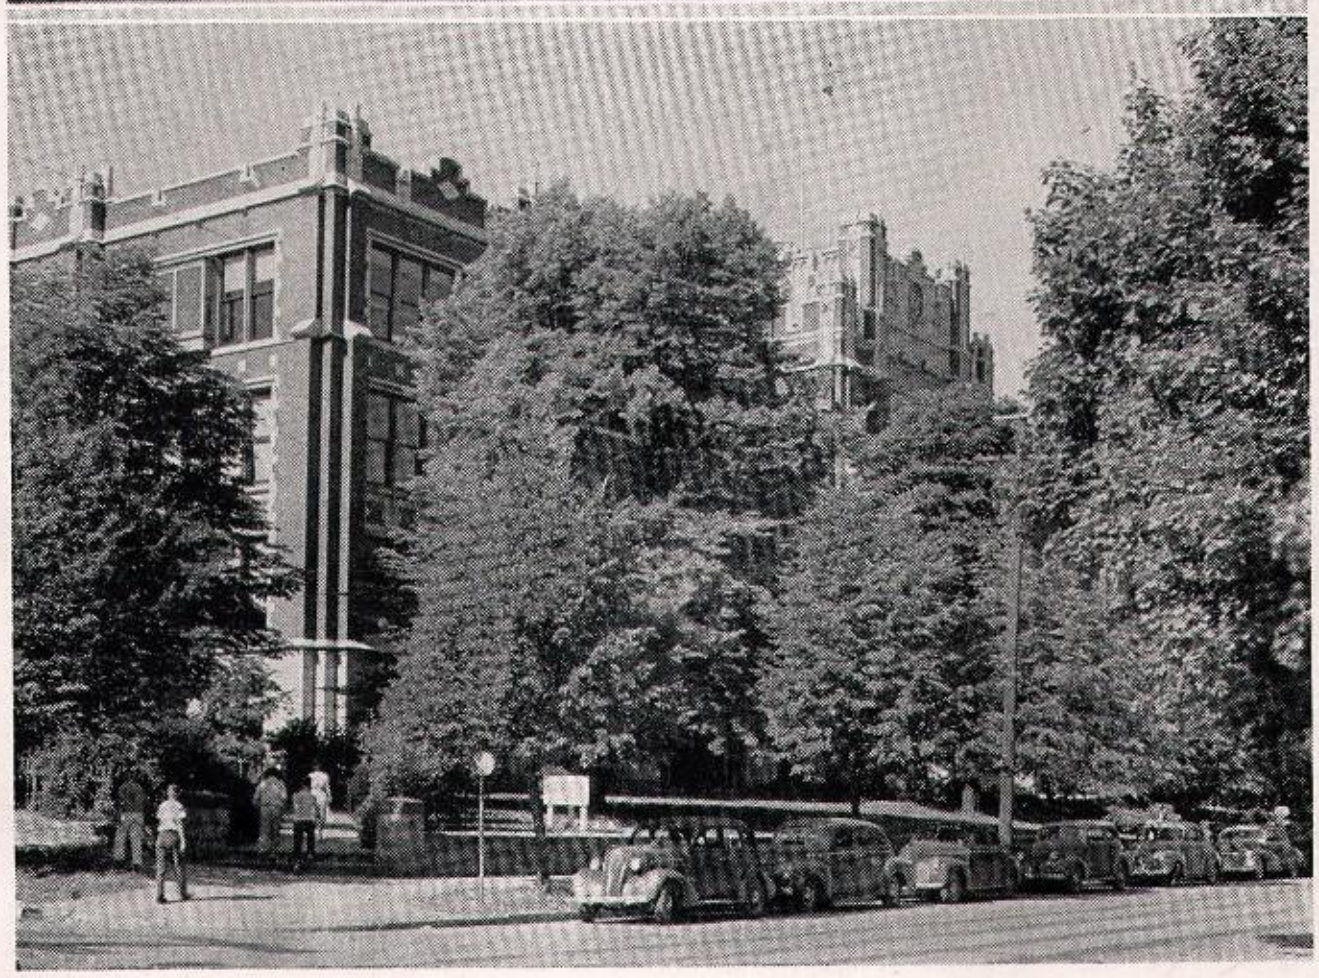
LYDIA GOOS, Art

CARL G. MILLER, Editorial and Business



This beautiful etching, "Burgos Cathedral," by Andrew Affleck, is representative of the large Lewis and Clark art collection. The structure is Spanish.

Spring at Lewis and Clark

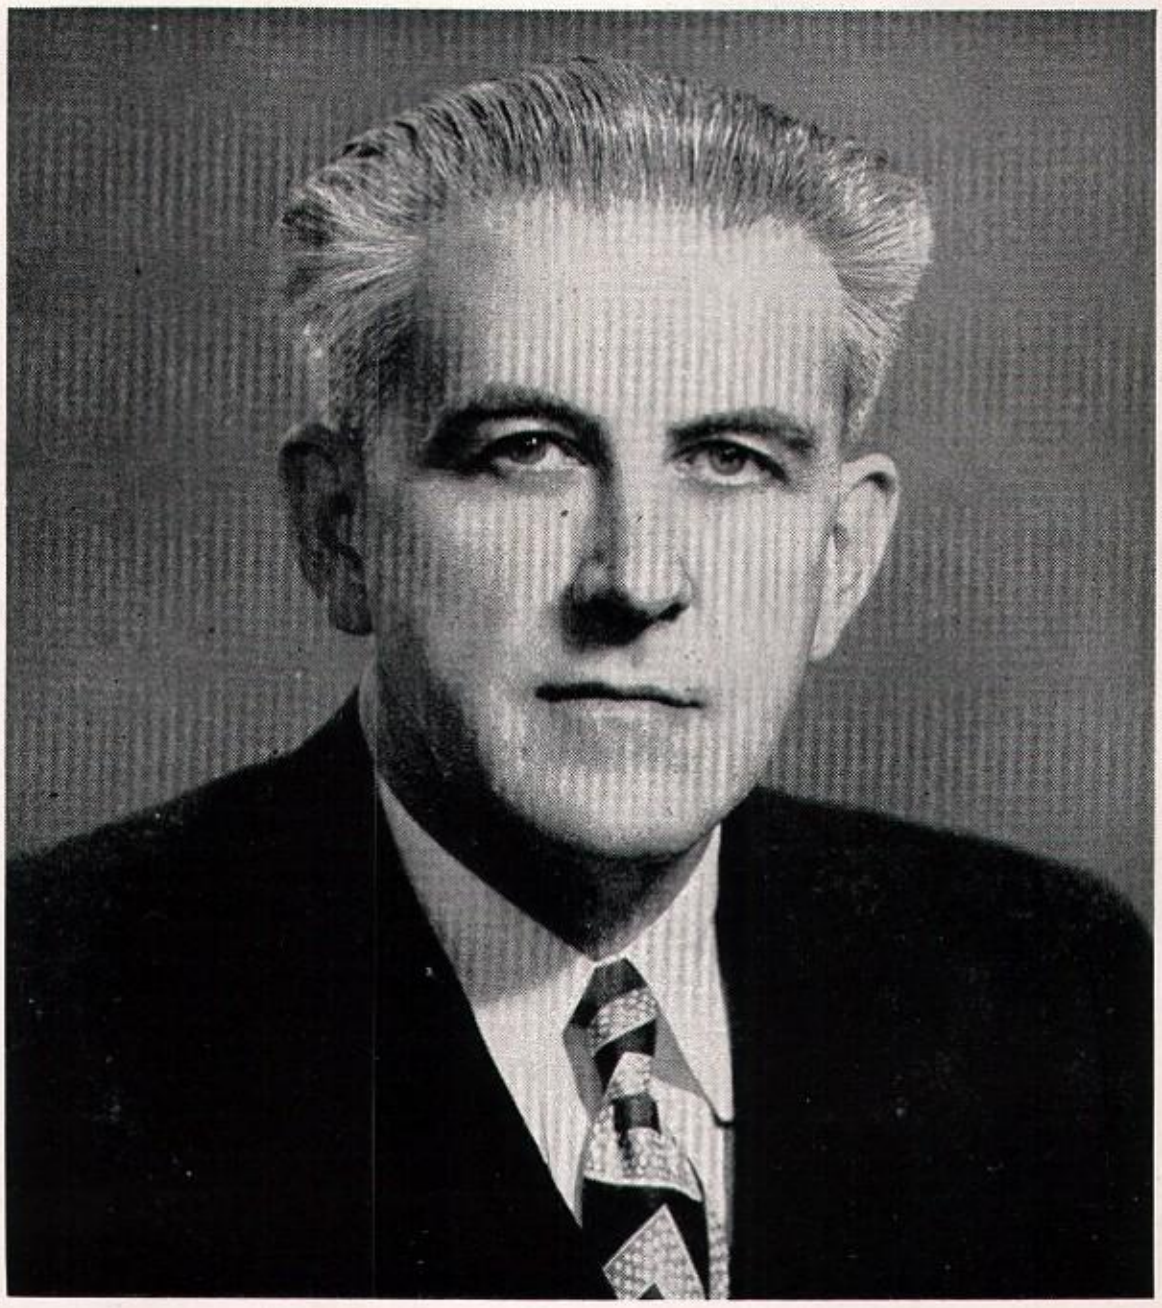


These two views of the school show the front entrance and northeast corner surrounded by trees.

"Chief Headhunters"

"Headhunting" is only one of the duties of the school's friendly girls' and boys' advisers, Bernadine McClincy and William Taylor. Far more students remember them for their generous assistance in minor crises and for helpful advice than for reprimands for misbehavior.

"King of the Jungle"



In keeping with the jungle theme of the TIGER, Principal A. L. Parker may be referred to as "king of the jungle." In qualities of leadership, ability, and industry, as well as size—he is 6 feet, 2 inches tall—he has similarities to the lion, king of beasts.

Lewis and Clark's "jungle king" is completing his twenty-sixth year at this school, and has been principal for the last eight years. Before that he was vice principal for thirteen years, and taught social studies for three years.

Dear Judy,
Remember all those great times in those great 5 classes we grade school. We'll have to have some more — parties? during high school. Love ya lots,

Sherry Johnson

Judy,
let's have fun this year putting around with some — remember that you some — 5 classes we gay English together? I really were in thought that was a riot
Good luck, Judy

Top—Culprits Jeanne Smith, Nancy Hirvas and Patsy Boothe keep the proctors busy. Top center—Judy Ashley and Laura Herrington at the Seniors' kid party admire Mr. Perring's portrait. Top right—Marilyn Jones demonstrates a well-known art while Janice Gimmel and Gloria Wales stand by to clean up after the explosion. Second left—"Skipping sixth" are Marianne Mercer, Dawnn Swan, Marliss Gigler. Second center—Gloria Parker, Mary Schalkau persuade photogenic Eve Nolan to pose for the photographer. Second right—Millie Benefield and Madelyn Graybill assist Howard Reynolds in his stage job. Third left—Wait until Pepsodent sees this! Tom Hill, Dave Daggett, Dick Larson, Bob Weaver, Gary Cressey, Ron Darnell, Keith Swenson and Ensley Rofinot were at the kid party also. Third right—Duncan Hallet, Bob Schimke, Ed McDowell, Gordon Vails, Ed Erickson and Reginald Frazier try to solve this "weighty" problem. Fourth left—During lunch Pat Byrne, Carole Rutherford, and Jeannine Melvin enjoy fall sunshine. Fourth right—The A.S.B. dance committee seems satisfied with "Santa's Swing," one of the season's most successful dances. Marianne Mercer, Pat Weitzman, Chuck Coleman, Nancy Bell, Bill Farr.

CLASSES

Dear Judy.

Well we had fun yesterday didn't (my dam grandmother) & hope it will turn out all right. Maybe we can have a lot of fun this summer. can't we. Jud go fishing some day O.K.

Well & better say what a nut girl you are - hope you don't be mad at me for you know what (I'll see you next May day) Mean to a swell friend

Love of Such

Barb Fuge.

Dear Judy,
Was glad to hear from you. I hope it doesn't rain tomorrow as I have to work. I'll be glad when school is out. Then I can go fishing more often. Judy, I have a surprise for you. Guess what it is. Dad bought a cabin on the lake. We are going to live there all summer. Isn't that swell. Judy, I have a wonderful plan. Why don't you come up and stay with me. Then we can go swimming and fishing. Please do. Judy, I have to go now. Please write soon.

Love,
Donna Rae Hershberger

Tiger staff members, turned amateur photographers, catch students in informal poses between classes, during lunch, at a game, and on a proctor post.

L-3—Chuck Coleman, Larry Mack, and Ron Darnell compare notes—or is it phone numbers?

R-1—Absorbed in a Rogers-Lewis and Clark football game are Henry Bruno, Glenn Tollett, Bob Tollett, LaVerne Melton, Bob McConnell, and Kenneth Merkle.

R-2—Joanne Irvine yawns broadly as she, Jeanine Melvin, and Barbara Baxtrom bask in the September sun for a brief moment after lunch.

ACTIVITIES

Dear Judy,

Well since this page is empty I guess I will try to fill it.

Judy you and I have had just loads of fun this year and I sure have. loved it. I think you will get really far in college and I now you'll have fun.

We are really good friends and I will never forget the wonderful things you have done for me and I hope that you will always remember me.

Judy, maybe you wont believe this, but I think you are one of the nicest girls I have ever known.

Lots of Love

Annie "X" Denton

Fifth Row: Mary Lou Ferrer, Carol Cooke, Elnora White, Shirley Johnson, Jean Sherwin, Naomi Newmiller, Beverly Wilson, Norma Fendler. Kneeling: Donna Lucht and Marna Wham.

Take On Many Projects in Mathematics

The Mathematics club got its fingers in several "pi's" this year. Aside from the club's interesting activities at meetings, they also promoted the annual math contest and created the decorative geometric tree ornaments for the beautiful tree last Christmas.

Third Row: John Pitts, Joe Clumpner, Cameron Kirkham, Frederick Phelps, Bob Whitney.

Develop Architectural, Drawing Skills

Improving and encouraging free-hand sketching has been this year's objective in the Architectural club. Preliminary work for the course in architecture tends to keep this club among the smaller groups in the school.

Lettermen Give Emphasis to Sports

This honorary organization serves to unify the different sports programs of the school. The club highlighted the football season with its annual Lettermen's banquet followed by movies of the UCLA vs. WSC game.

First Row: Left—School is out, and Pat Nabata, Barbara Coleman, Jean Scott, Leila Blume, Donna Lucht, Patsy Carman, and Mary Jean Corliss meet to walk downtown together. Left Center—Elaine Jamieson and Katherine Kirkham check Tiger questionnaires. Right Center—Flag-twirlers Mary Lou Ferrer, Carole Shearer, Donna Lucht, Norma Fendler, Bev Clepper, and Marna Wham practice on playfield. Right—Chuck Coleman points out something across the street for Ron Darnell and Larry Mack. Second Row: Left—Golfers Jill Peck, Grace Burns, and Barbara Coleman are ready to leave for practice. Center—The girls behind those books are Julie Eliason, Ruth Meredith, and MaryLee Meredith. Right—Marlene Linton, Adele Grover, and Karen Spaeth check roll in study hall. Third Row: Left—Cheerleaders Sally Krehbiel and Nancy Hirvas lead a yell, Barbara Suza talks, and Patsy Cauvel sells popcorn at a football game. Top Center—Janice Brown, Pat Weitzman, and Sybil Elkins entertained at "Patterns in Tone," presented November 17. Lower Center—In the midst of a group of absorbed students, a small fry views a game with as much interest as any of them. Right—The feature attraction of "Patterns in Tone" was the singing of Doug Nash, who was accompanied by Kenny Man on the guitar. Lower Left—A group of very wet students gather in the front hall after an early fall cloudburst. Lower Right—Joy McDonald, Arvellen Fuehrer, Joanne Irvine, and Kathy Lavin watch as "Nurse" Diane Shultz feeds "Patient" Diane Hendricks, with the supervision of Mrs. Quackenbush, home nursing teacher.

Twenty-Two on First Semester Staff

The Journal staff for the first semester successfully finished an outstanding job, putting out the usual fourteen issues. Twenty-two made up the group, with Marianne Mercer, managing editor, and Gordon Vails, advertising manager.

First Row: Evelyn Christensen, Linda Devine, Anita Pohl, Stan Swanson, Cameron De Vore, Harry Glaze, Launce Macomber.

Second Row: Kurt Sacknitz, Madelyn Graybill, Jo An Ennis, Jean Ryker, Regina Billeter, Gwen Boothe, Patty Wolfe, Gordon Vails (advertising manager).

Third Row: Grace Burns, Marlene Berlat, Georgia Bryan, Marianne Mercer (managing editor), Adrienne Freeman, Lily Kajiyama.

Have Two Co-Editors for School Paper

Adviser Carl G. Miller enlarged the second semester staff to twenty-seven to allow for absences and further efficiency in the work. Another new characteristic of the spring Journal staff was that the staff was headed by two co-editors, Cameron De Vore and Harry Glaze.

First Row: Regina Billeter, Patsy Erwin, Ann Livingston, Kay Morse, Virginia Webster, Grace Burns, Lily Kajiyama, Mary Turner.

Second Row: Toshi Yonago, Ed Haugen, Naomi Newmiller, Donelle Leonard, Lois Hill, Evelyn Christensen, Jean Ryker, Jo An Ennis, Pat Nabata, Barbara Chase.

Give Pageant of School's Talent

"It's whatcha do with whatcha got" might well be the clue for obtaining membership in this very talented organization. This year Miss Ann Reely was assisted by Cadet Teacher Samuel Riggs in planning and directing Thespian's semi-annual con. The club has long been an outstanding school group, often donating sizable sums to worthy school projects.

First Row: Nancy Bell, Jody Luck, Marianne Mercer, Carmine Perfetto, Miss Reely (adviser), Aileen Conolly, Lu Ann Kemp, Emily Warashina.

Second Row: Kay Morse, Helene Van Tyne, Gail Hollister, Bonney Koltenbron, Marilyn Stone, Janice Brown, Sharon Groth, Nancy Woofter.

Third Row: Lawrence Grossman, Bruce White, Sidney Swain, Barbara McNeily, Dorothy Benson, La Vonne Grasser, Jane Noble, Beverly Bruce.

Fourth Row: Anita Pohl, Linda Devine, Clark Nolan, Don Harvey, Howard Reynolds, Polly Bell, Regina Billeter, Alice Gohler.

Parley Political Problems

The Senate club dabbled in its own brand of politics this year by having an annual mock trial and visiting the courthouse, where they heard a speech by Judge Edgerton. The members were privileged to see Dean McAllistr's movie on the United Nations and worked on various other activities including an annual banquet.

First Row: Barry Dunlop, Parker Compau, Dick Allen, Ronnie Davidson, Jim Montzheimer, Neil Cochran, Dick Felt, Bruce Love.

Dramatize Historical Indian Incident

This scene taken from Charlotte B. Chorpenning's play, "The Indian Captive," given by Miss Anne Reeley's dramatics class last fall, represents the introduction of the little white captive to the Seneca tribe by the braves who stole her from her frontier cabin. The play, taken from the actual history of the Seneca Indians, was well received at each of its many performances.

Among the leads were: Dianna Hendricks, Sharon Johnson, Katherine Kirkham, Duane Bock, Nancy Woofter, Gary Gilbert, and Dave LaRose.

Gives Out Journalistic Honors

The Stoddard King chapter of Quill and Scroll represents Lewis and Clark. Membership is composed of students who have done superior journalistic work on either the Tiger or Journal.

First Row: Jeanne Smith, Madelyn Graybill, Marlene Berlat, Adrienne Freeman, Lily Kajiyama, Georgia Bryan.

Second Row: Polly Bell, Marianne Mercer, Linda Devine, Anita Pohl, Donna Gilkey, Grace Burns, Elaine Jamieson, Patty Wolfe.

Third Row: Paul Toba, Gordon Vails, Stan Swanson, Kurt Sacknitz, Launce Macomber, Patsy Boothe, Regina Billeter.

Specialize in Home Economics

The purpose of F.H.A. accounts for the fact that it probably participates in more activities than any other school club. They successfully carry out home, school, community, state and national projects. A demonstrated interest in home economics is required before girls are voted into the group.

First Row: Delores Ostlund, Helen Louise Beaver, Sharon Rapaport, Betty O'Malley, Pat Nabata, Sharon Garrison, Pat Faubion, Doris Watt, Barbara Beeman.

Second Row: Mrs. Cunningham (adviser), Anita Bergund, Shirley Langston, Rosalie Whisler, Marleta Henderson, Beulah Stainer, Miki Matsumura, Shirley Gail Smith, Ruthie Sumihira, Shirley June Smith, Gayla Ayers.

Third Row: Deane Derleth, Bertha Lyman, Caroline Berk, Marilyn Berk, Lorraine Lyle, Pat Rissler, Geral Dee Williams, Sylvia Vandervert, Jeanne Peters, Alice McDowell.

Sing for Civic Groups, Cons

One of the outstanding musical organizations of the school is Tiger Choir. Membership is acquired only by tryouts. This group sings for civic organizations and school cons, and annually presents "The Messiah" at Christmas time. Cecil E. Enlow is director.

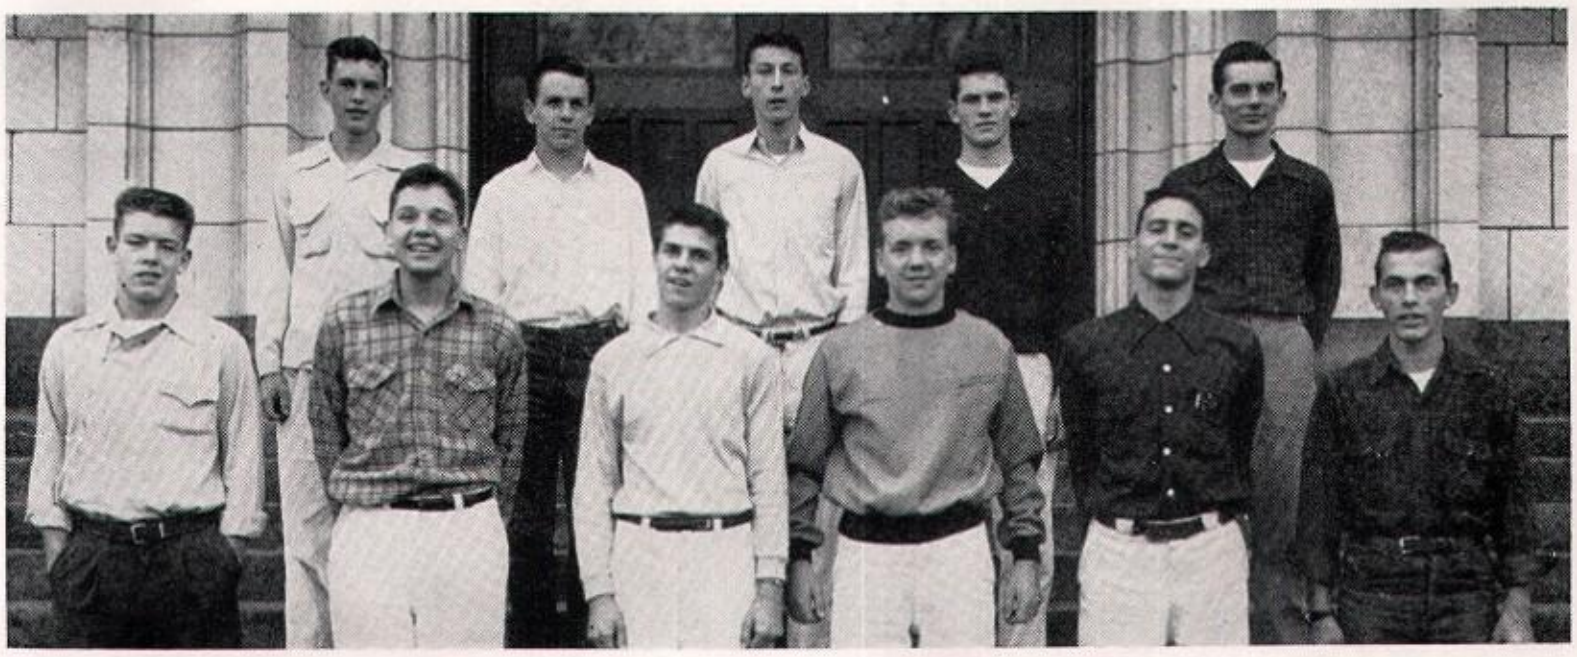
Two Pianos: Nancy Bell, Barbara Zerbach.

Tour Local Engineering Projects



A major in mathematics and science is required to make a boy eligible for membership in the Engineers' club. The club has toured local utilities and has planned a tour of Grand Coulee Dam.

First Row: Reginald Frazier, Cameron Kirkham, Elgin Fuller, Ed Erickson, Frank Celio, Bill Schaefer.

Add to Color of School's Parades

Whirling batons and the high-stepping majorettes always are one of the star attractions at the games or in the civic parades. These girls are chosen for their skill in handling the batons, their superior marching ability, and their possession of a certain something called "it."

Are Spanish Enthusiasts Outside of Classrooms

Spanish, being one of the popular languages offered here, is expressed socially as well as scholastically in the school. Adelante members find enjoyment in their club functions which often have some Spanish characteristic or theme.

First Row: Caryle Pence, Cora Dee Peterson, Marianne Mercer, Polly Bell, Nancy Bell, Marilyn Stone, Nancy Atwater, Lilace Long.

Third Row: Eugene Huppin, Lee De Vore, Mary Lou Ferrer, Miss Pope (adviser), Kay Morse, Jackie Baker, Joe Berglund, Arnold Rongren.

Study Life and Old Customs of Germany

The German language has been represented since 1948 by the Deutsches Unterhaltung Klub. The club is primarily interested in developing appreciation for German life and customs through discussions and reports given in the German or English language.

First Row: Virginia Haag, Naomi Newmiller, Ann Stuart, Jo Ann Luck, Jo An Ennis, Frederick Phelps.

Second Row: Kenneth Putt, Mirjam Hottman, Norma Fendler, Miss Mabel Pope (adviser), Helen Weissenborn, Catherine McNair, Max Davis, William Schaefer.

Make, Donate Showcase to Department

Many painstaking projects done in Latin classes showed such fine work that this club decided to show not only the Latin pupils but the whole school its efforts by means of a showcase that they have donated to the Latin department. The classical club elects the customary two consuls for its executive positions instead of the usual single president of the other school organizations.

First Row: Connie Oldershaw, Dayle Nelson, Karen Gustafson, Loraine Lyle, John Bright, Ann Stuart, Shirley LaDow, Leah Wurzburg.

Second Row: Janet McNair, Carol Hoffman, Joan Lawson, Doris Fallquist, Mary Ann Greycloud, Jane Bawden, Clark Nolan, Mrs. Wacker (adviser).

Third Row: Dan Thompson, Bob Schimke, Dean Wendle, Barbara Laurenz, Jennifer Upton, Betty Bock, Suzanne Thompson, Gordon Reuhl.

Are Current Affairs Analysts

Because 1949-50 was an extremely eventful period in national and international affairs, the Forum club had an active field for their discussions. The club has bi-monthly meetings which are devoted to analyzing current affairs.

First Row: Jane Bawden, Lorna Keiber, Miss Katherine Hunt (adviser), Mary Lou Ferrer, Barbara Beeman.

Third Row: Roger Sherman, Edward Larrabee, Lee Holum.

The band plays, students cheer, as the May Day queen of '49 is crowned.

Enjoy Outdoor Activities, Pastimes

Enthusiasts for the out-of-doors make up the membership of this recently organized group. The Outdoor club is one of the largest and most popular clubs in the school and has been forced to limit its membership because of this.

First Row: Cora Dee Peterson, Nan Newsum, Barbara Kreuger, Janet McNair, Regina Billeter, Eve Nolan, Barbara O'Brien, Nancy Winters, Catherine McNair.

Second Row: James Montzheimer, Parker Compau, Donna Gilkey, Susanne Stout, Clark Nolan, Jackie Baker, Mrs. Joyce Wickline (adviser), Beverly Nelson, Bill Farr.

Third Row: Barry Jones, Don Runner, Cameron DeVore, Arthur Madsen, Stanley Swanson, John Pitts, Bill Olsen, Don Harvey, Dan Thompson.

Draw, Design, and Decorate

Decorations at the A.S.B. fall date dance were an example of the Fine Arts club's creative abilities. Miss Lydia Goos has advised the group through a very successful and eventful program this past year.

First Row: Lilly Kajiyama, Marjorie Meyers, Virginia Haag, Cathy Stone, Ann Stuart, Janet Huff, Madelyn Graybill.

Top Left—Patty Wolfe, as a hall proctor, and Patsy Erwin, as a frosh, presented a short skit for the "Hello Week" con.

Center Right—Mr. Jones, Miss Danke, and Mr. Fuller make plans for the Tigers' trip to Yakima November 11.

Lower Left—Kriss Crowther and Mr. Fowler examine the public address system purchased in the fall by the A.S.B.

Undertake Heavy Schedule of Debates, Activities

A very active debating season included the annual nondecision guest tournament, an eventful trip to Wenatchee, and the debate convocation. The Forensic club took on a comparatively heavy schedule of debating for this small club, but concluded its season successfully under the coaching of William B. Graham.

First Row: Marilyn Finley, Sydne Swain, Ruth Newmiller, Joan Sonju, Luella Brewster.
Third Row: James Minard, Cameron Kirkham, Bill Thrailkill, Ivan Sills.

Compose Original Prose, Poetry

The ability to compose original literary pieces is the special skill that is required for membership in this select group known as Papyrus. Constructive student and guest critics keep the club's work on a high standard for entering many literary contests.

First Row: Pat Smith, Lois Fogelquist, Marianne Mercer, Barbara Chase, Adrienne Freeman, Carol Shank, Lorna Schlictig.

Tiger Band Shows Its Concert Form

Hail to the Lewis and Clark band! Honored for their fine performances, these instrumentalists were rewarded with a trip to Yakima last fall. Under the direction of C. Oliver Fuller, the band particpated in parades and contests and was well praised for its concert presentations.

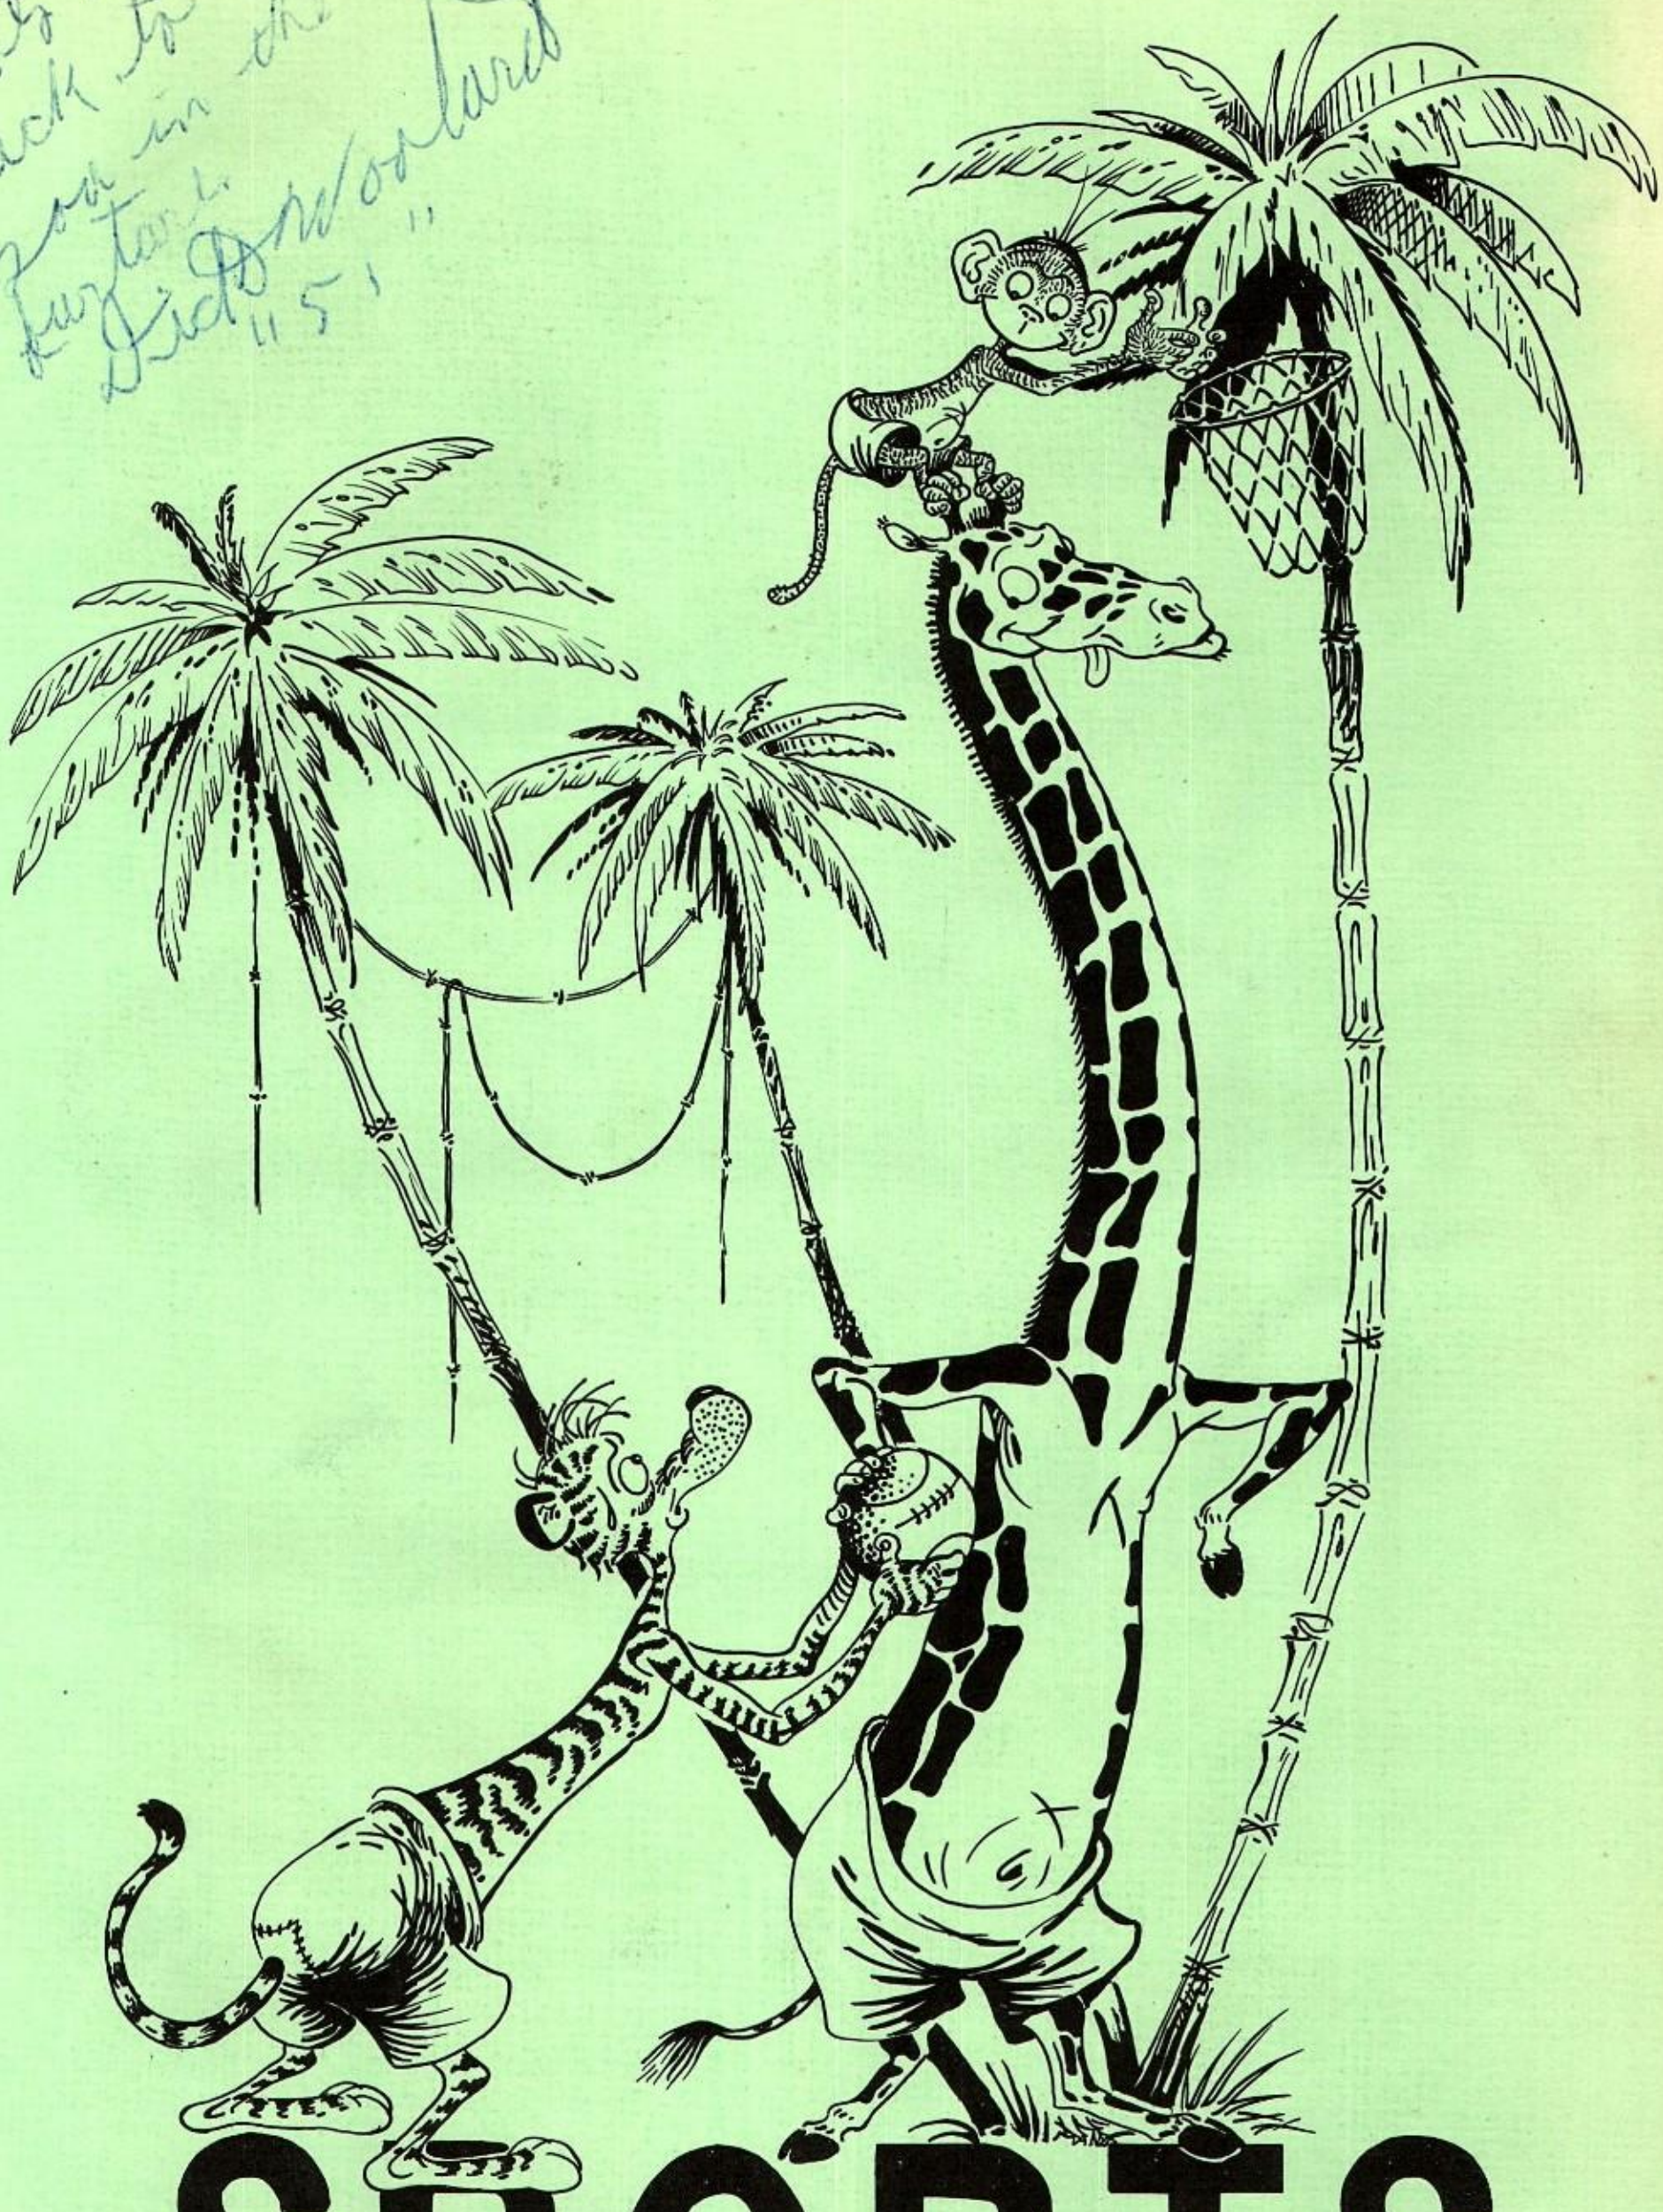
Lots of luck to you in the Junior Dick Wortard "5"



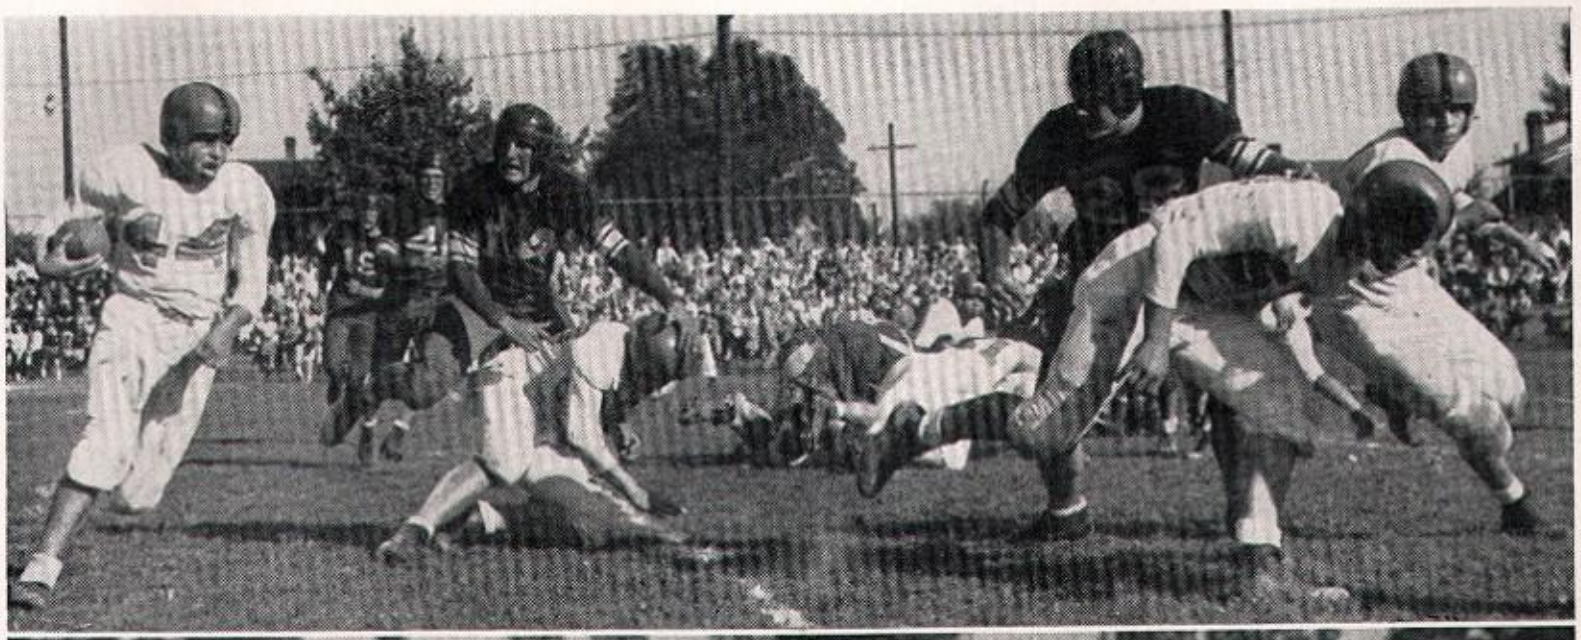
SPORTS

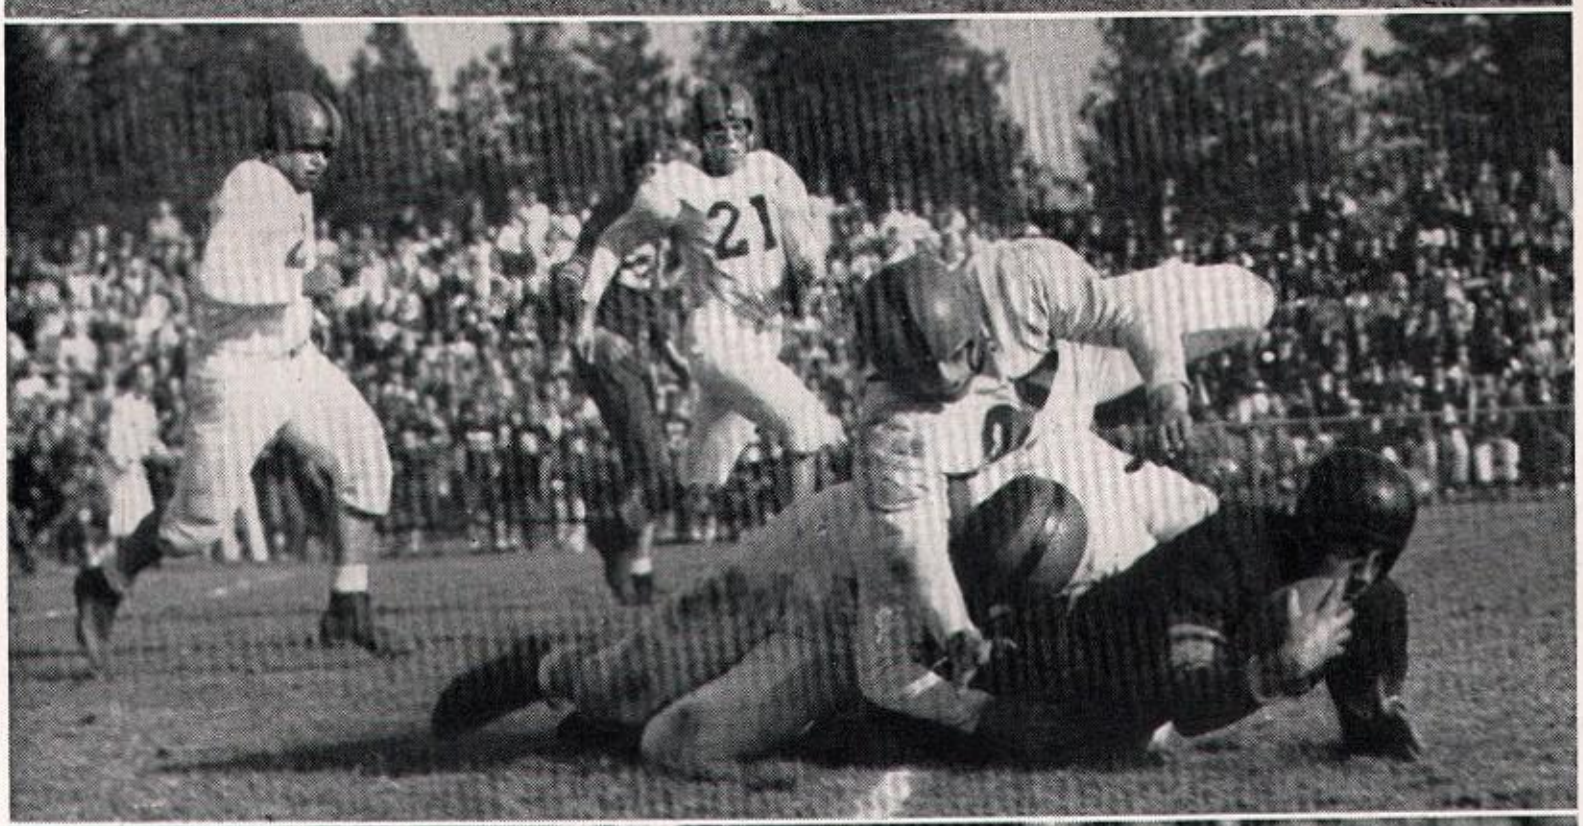
Dear Jeudy,

I wrote on back of the sports page because you are so sporty. I only have a few minutes to scribble tender thoughts at friendship because it is twenty minutes to write in my diger. (To be continued)

Two days ago I can't remember what I was going to say. I have started this letter about 5 times. Back to the letter. I am getting diggy. I can't remember what you see slant at. I can't think thoughts which I don't think. Even though I don't know what I am talking about half the time (I don't think you do either) we will have a fun night. (You, I and the letter) we will see you next year. I don't feel very tender any words of wisdom except have a good summer (you wrote that to me) and I'll see you next year at more parties and at Book Club. Good luck to the girl who hangs her coat in home room.

Love.
Karen Gustafson



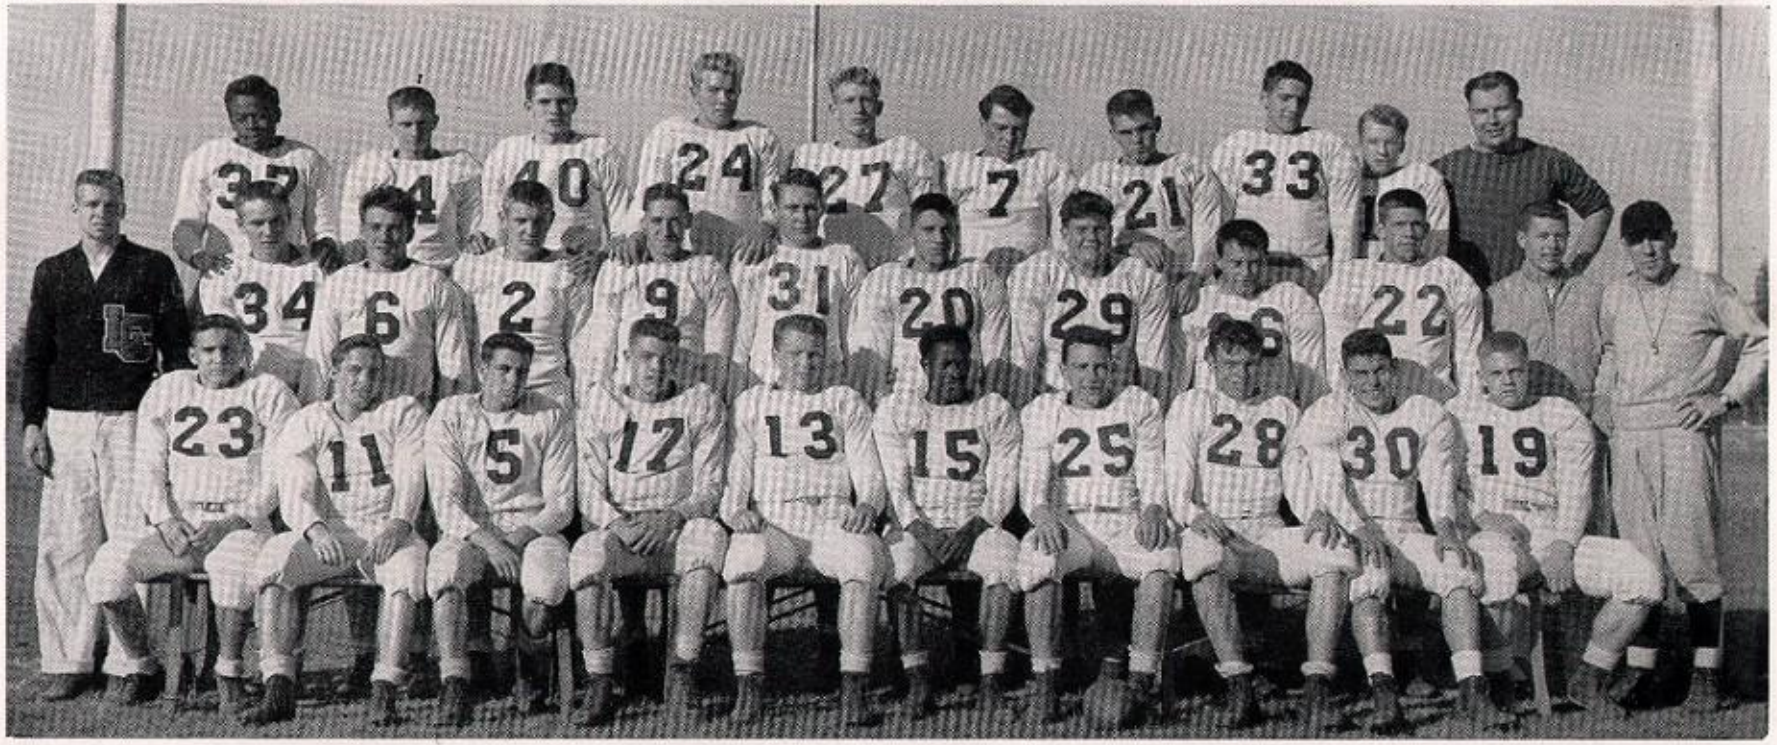


Top: In the first game of the football season Chuck Coleman (44) goes around right end for a touchdown while Bob Mathot takes out North Central's Darling (14) and Ed Bouchee and John Chamberlin corner Whiting.

Center: Ed Bouchee and Ens Rofinot (20) beat Neil Caudill and Bob Mathot (21) to the job of tackling Roger's Gerlach.

Bottom: This one isn't getting away either: John Miller (40) from behind and Larry Mack (58) and John Plastino (51) from the front; in another second both of Gonzaga's men, Rowles and Hunting (99) will be put out of condition.

Varsity Football Team Places Third in City League



Results of the 1949 football season were discouraging for the Lewis and Clark Tigers. They started in third place at the Merry-Go-Round game and finished in third place by winning only one game.

Chuck Coleman was the captain and Nick MacPhee took the Inspirational Award.

First Row: Frank Cello, Bob Weaver, Ron Davidson, Reggie Frozier, Dave Daggett, Doug Nash, Gordon Adams, John Chamberlain, Chuck Coleman and Bill Farr.

Second Row: Bill Olsen, Gunnard Johnson, Dick Fanning, Roger Wyett, Howard Lamson, Ed Bouchee, Ens Rofinot, Tom Hill, Niel Caudill, Larry Mack, Nick MacPhee, and Hal Jones, head coach.

Top, Left: John Miller, regular end for the Tigers, played consistent ball all year and was a defensive standout. Second, Left: Bill Farr, quarterback, was a second team all-city, and big things are expected of him in 1950. Third, Left: Gordon Adams was the starting center and was a bulwark in the line for the Orange and Black. Bottom, Left: Tom Hill was the foundation of the Lewis and Clark line and won top honors as the alternate all-city lineman. Top, Center: Chuck Coleman, hard-charging halfback, was the spark of the 1949 team, winning all-city honors for the Tigers. Bottom, Center: Ensley Rofinot was another backfield regular, and this slippery Tiger was a big thorn in the side of the opposition's defense. Top, Right: Larry Mack was probably the roughest lineman L.C. had and at times the most brilliant. Center, Right: Ed Bouchee, the league's only southpaw passer, was probably the most versatile of the Tiger backs, being an ace runner, passer, and kicker. Bottom, Right: Neil Caudill will be back in 1950 to be a starting tackle for the third year in a row. He was a tough man and not easily stopped.

Editor's Note: All names in the sport section written in bold face won their letter or numeral this year.

1949 Football B Squad Takes City Championship

The Tigers-to-be were the city champions in the 1949 B team season. They lost only one game in a close-score clash. Lefty Crain and Gene Gadau were backfield standouts.

First Row: Bob Randall, Vincent Trappe, Jack Luenow, John Strawick, Bud Dibblee, Dean Wendle, Don Murray, Gene Gadau, Ron Swenson, and Ken Swenson.

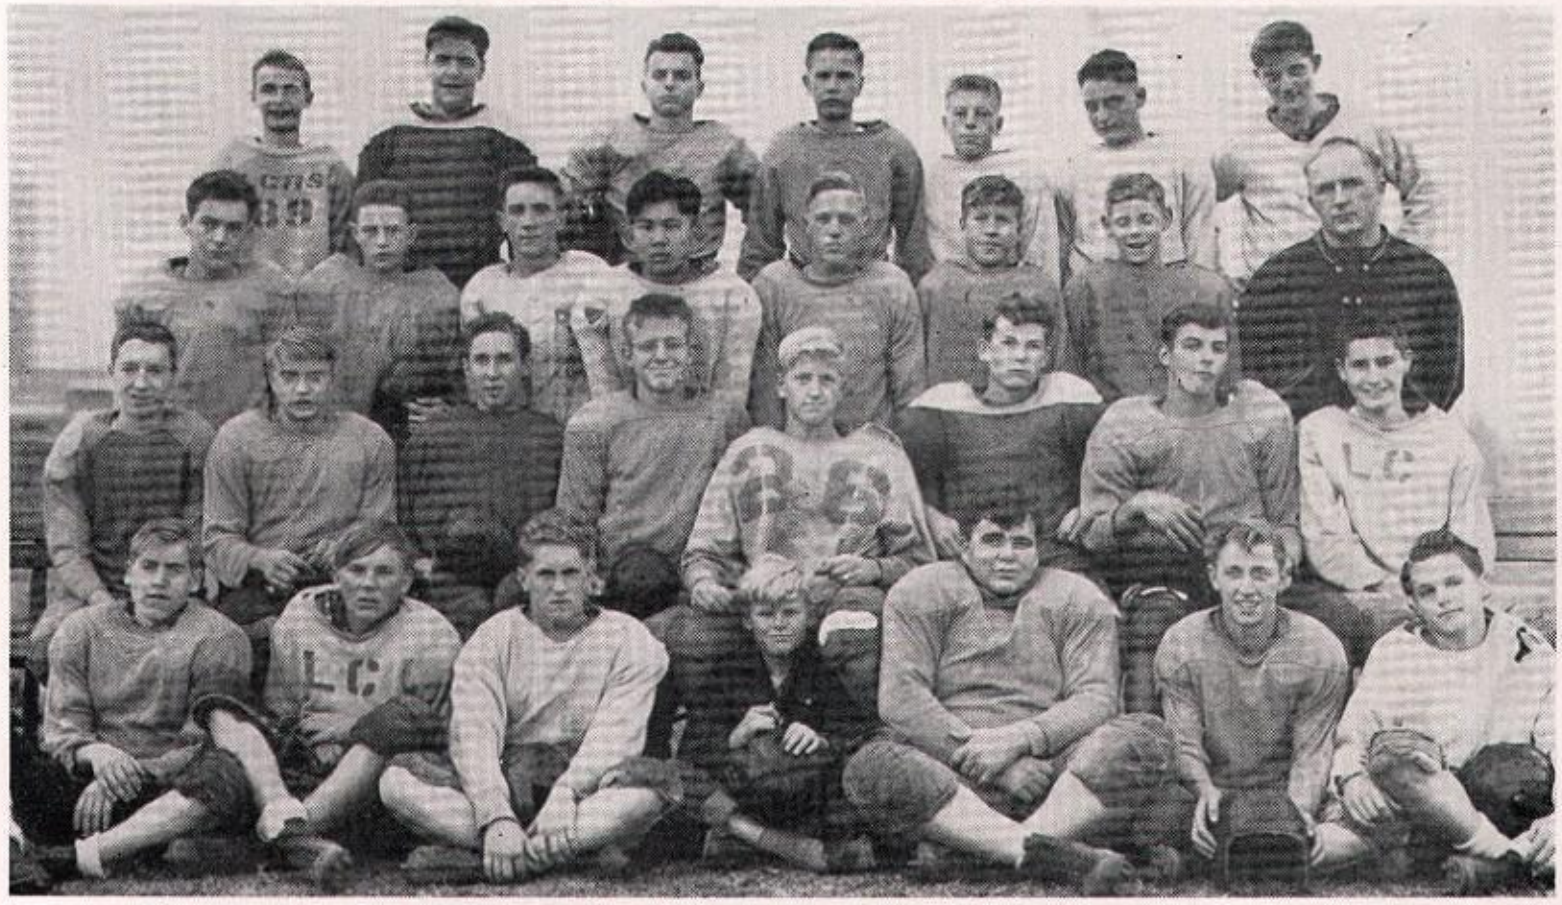
Third Row: Phil Phythian, Bruce Stilson, Wayne Stoddard, Bob Peterson, Art Greycloud, Bruce Mouser, and Phil Sandberg.

Fourth Row: Glen Jewett, Vern Johnson, Gordon Peery, Roger Strawick, Jim McCaughan, Gaynor Guell, Roy Burns, Don Baker, and Glen Colgren.

Frosh Football Team Finishes Second



The Kittens, in their 1949 season, won all but one of their hard-fought games. Losing to Gonzaga, they finished an easy second.

First Row: Bill Bryan, Leo Murphy, Dale Crossman, Clifton Anderson, Wayne Spence, Bob Gifford, and Linson Jennings.

Third Row: Lawrence Chestnut, Gary Patrick, Pat Powers, Minura Hayashi, Bob Hargraves, Gary Sparber, Peter Gerphiede, and Ed Bator, coach.

1949 Baseball Co-Champions

In the spring of '49 the Tigers took seven out of nine games, losing the other two to Rogers in close-score games. This brought the Tigers and the Pirates to a tie. Each member was outstanding at his own job.

Curt Bloomquist was the team's captain while Roy Donder received the Inspirational Award. Art Greycloud, Darrell Lee, and Ron Henriksen were managers.

First Row: Jim Walther, centerfield; Chuck Coleman, third base; Ed Bouchee, rightfield; Bob Mothot, catcher; Dick Allen, second base; Bill Farr, catcher, and Reggie Frazier, leftfield.

Second Row: John Miller, first base; Tom Melrose, second base; Jack Spring, pitcher; Curt Bloomquist, pitcher; Roy Donder, pitcher; Dick Ager, leftfield, and Dick Henriksen, centerfield.

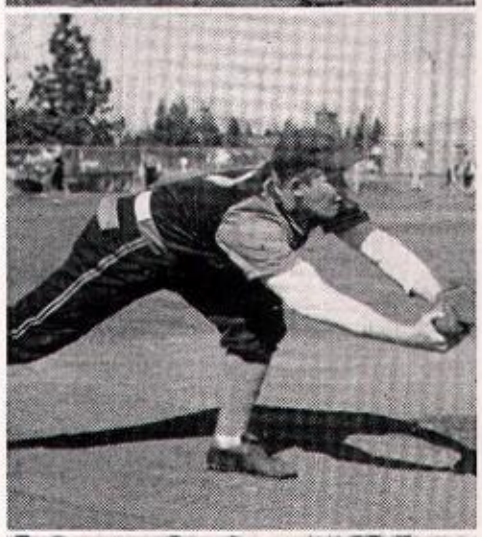
Dick Henriksen is an excellent outfielder who earned his letter by snagging flies and by returning them to third, as he is doing here.



John Miller, lanky first baseman, stretches out to snag a hot grounder. He can hit, too! John made his letter last spring.

Bill Farr received his letter last spring by executing a brilliant job behind Lewis and Clark's home plate. Here, in all his gear, he is receiving hot balls from Bloomquist.

Jack Spring, ace southpaw pitcher for Lewis and Clark, also made his letter. Here's how he looked when he rifled balls past the N.C. batters for a no-hit game.

Reggie Frazier, speedy left fielder, pulls long flies down with ease, as he is doing here. This skill earned him his letter.

Ed Bouchee was Lewis and Clark's hardest hitter and also did a good job at right field. He batted at an average of .448.

Chuck Coleman, another hard hitter with an average of .414, led the team in scoring. Chuck also plays a good game at third base.

Jim Walther, center fielder and pinch hitter, reached first base 14 times out of 22 times at bat, giving him a .412 batting average. Lawrence Bostrom is in the background.

B Team, City Champions

The B squad played their '49 season without a loss. Don Baker was their star pitcher and Larry Bostrom led the hitters.

First Row: Gunnard Johnson, Ed Erickson, Larry Bostrom, Don Baker, Howard Schmidt, Ken Swenson, Don Robinson, and Ron Wardrop.

Second Row: Art Greycloud, manager, and Art Walther, coach.

Third Row: Ron Swenson, Mark Sanders, Ken Sandberg, Bob Magnuson, Gary Colgren, Ted Nakamura, and Leo Perras.

Frosh Baseball Team Finishes Second

Falling prey to the Gonzaga Bullpups twice in hard-fought games during the '49 season, the Kittens ran a close second in city competition.

First Row: Allie Stearns, Dick Peterson, Lefty Crain, John Schaefer, Bill Parker, and Jim Jacoy.

Third Row: Max Schoening, coach; Forrest Laude, Bruce Miller, Don Rush, Tom Pickerel, Bill Griffith, and Gordon Perry.

Lewis and Clark's young and inexperienced basketball team gave the fans a thrill as they battled the city's older fives to end in second place at the closing of the 1950 season, losing to North Central's taller men. Ed Bouchee was elected captain and the Inspiration Award went to Bill Olson.

First Row: Don Robinson, Paul Perko, Bill Olson, and Duncan Hallet.

Second Row: Ed Bouchee, Jack Spring, John Halin, and Larry Bostrom.

Third Row: Mark Sanders, Bob Schimke, Bud Brainard, and Howard Schmidt.

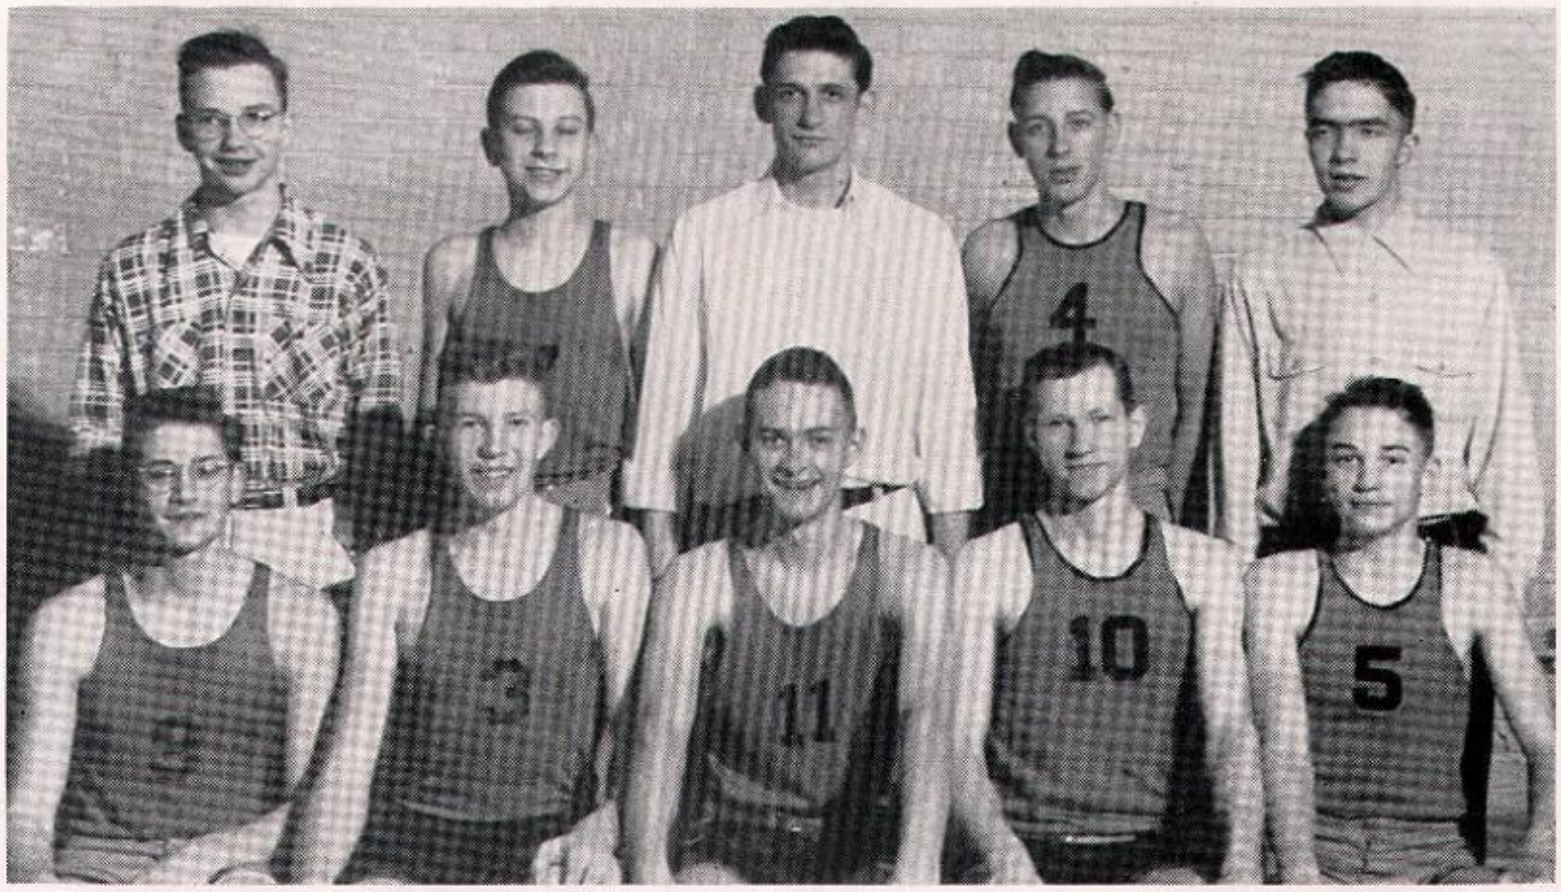
B Squad Basketball Team Is Champion



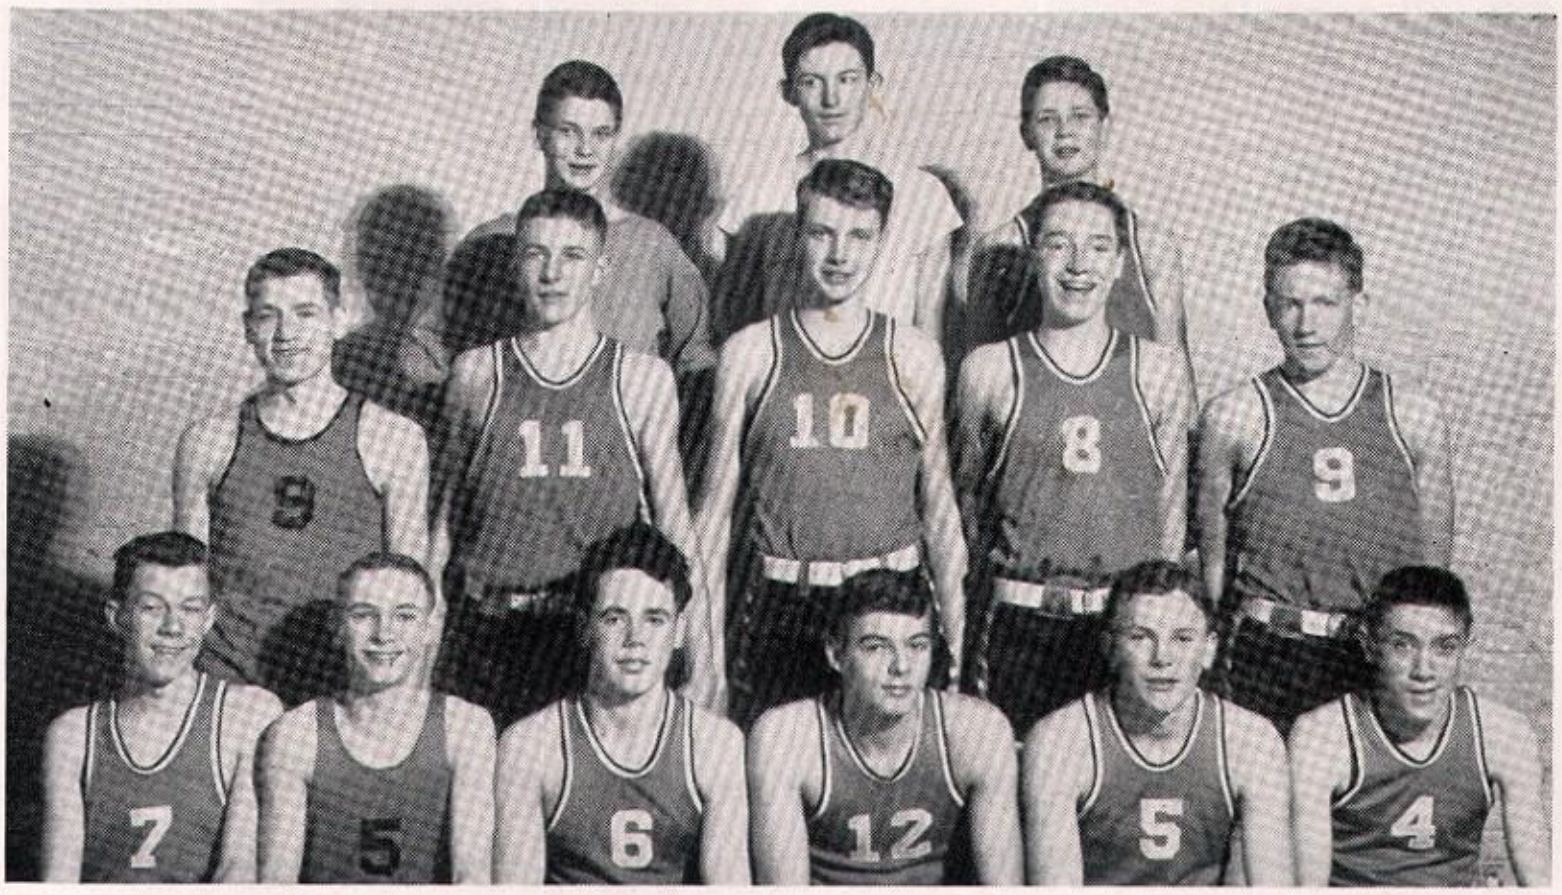
The B squad city championship was taken very easily by Lewis and Clark's hard-working floormen in the 1950 season. They piled up seven wins to overcome their one loss to keep in the lead of the three other high schools.

First Row: Gene Gadeau, Dick Woolard, Howard Schmidt, Jim Walther, and Bob Morris.

Second Row: Ronald Martini, Bill Parker, Bob Conner, Don Rush, and Mark Sanders.

Not in the picture were: Phil Hull, Bruce Mouser, and Bob Brandley.

Frosh Basketball Team Is Loser



The 1950 frosh basketball season left the Lewis and Clark Kittens in sixth place. The boys fought hard throughout the season, and great things are expected of them later on in their careers.

First Row: Stan Hallett, John Gilkey, Roger Dickerson, Bob Murphy, Leo Murphy, and Pat Powers.

Third Row: Duane Keevey, Bob Stover, and Don Keevey.

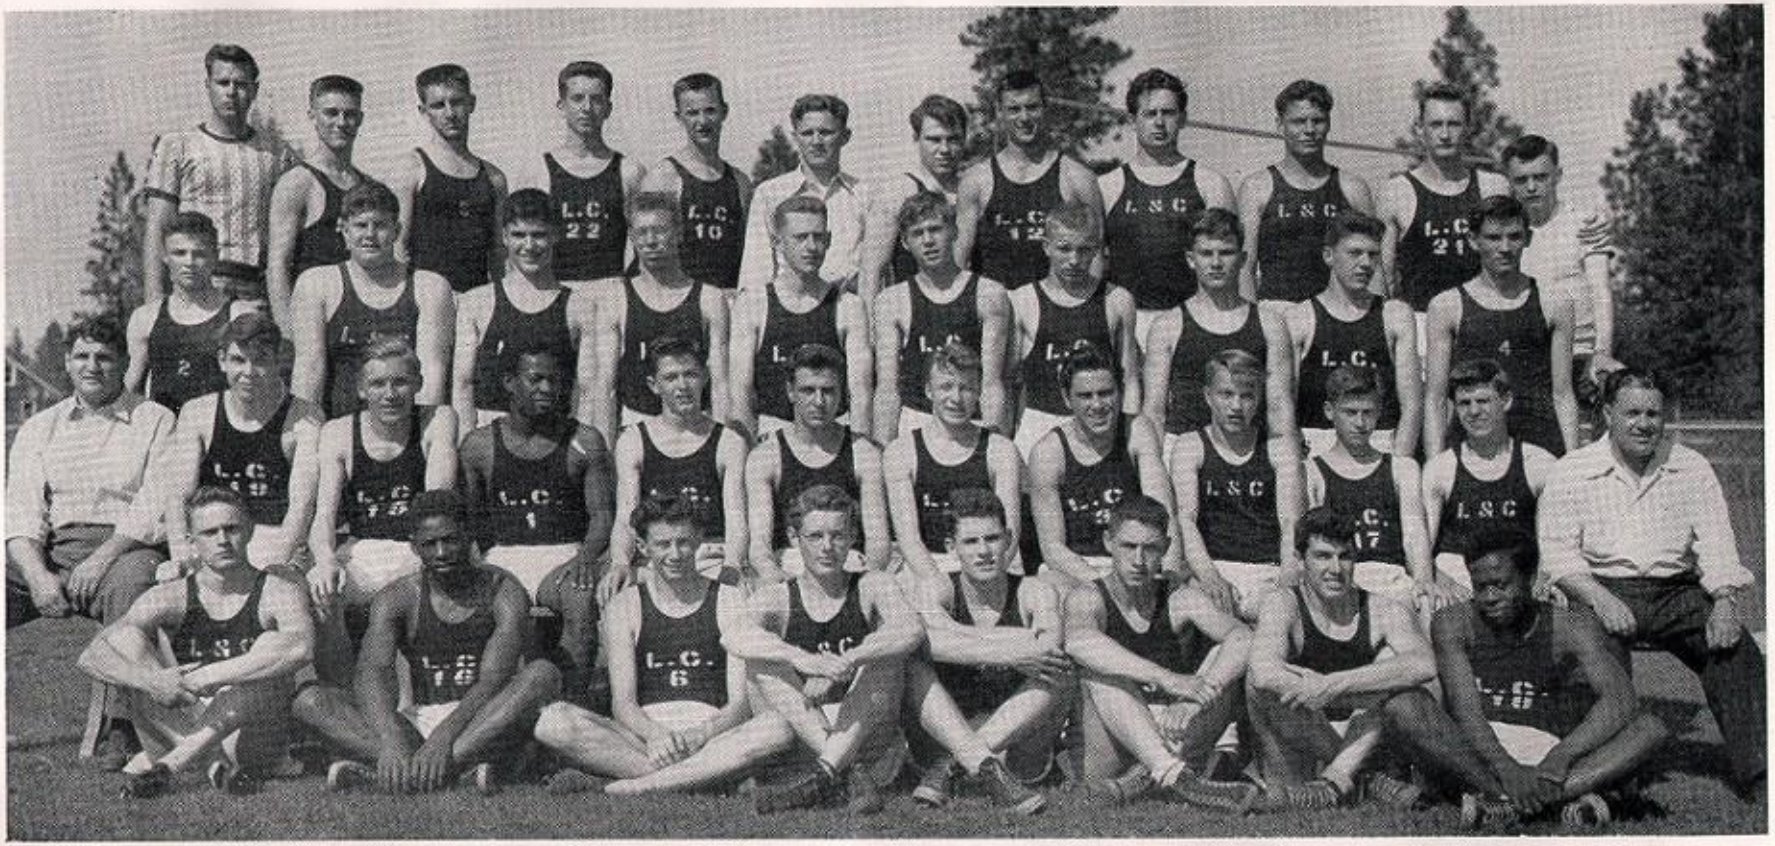
1949 Track Squad in Three-Way Tie



In the 1949 spring track season Lewis and Clark's squad won one meet easily from Gonzaga only to lose the other two meets of the season. This left Lewis and Clark, Gonzaga, and Rogers in a three-way tie for second place under North Central.

The captain of the squad was Merle Haffner.

First Row: Jim Walker, Herb Jones, Dick Murray, Bob Melior, Dan Thompson, Howard Lamson, Don Burns, and Talbert Nash.

Second Row: Gene Arger, coach, Carl Olson, Howard Reynolds, Doug Nash, Don Murray, Ron Davidson, Parker Compau, Neil Cochran, Jim Senna, Gordon Ruehl, Elgin Fuller, and Art Frey, coach.

Third Row: Larry Bunker, Tom Hill, Don Runner, Ernie Ruehl, Darrell Allen, Barry Jones, Bob Slattery, Griff Stiener, George Leif, and Clarence Poppe.

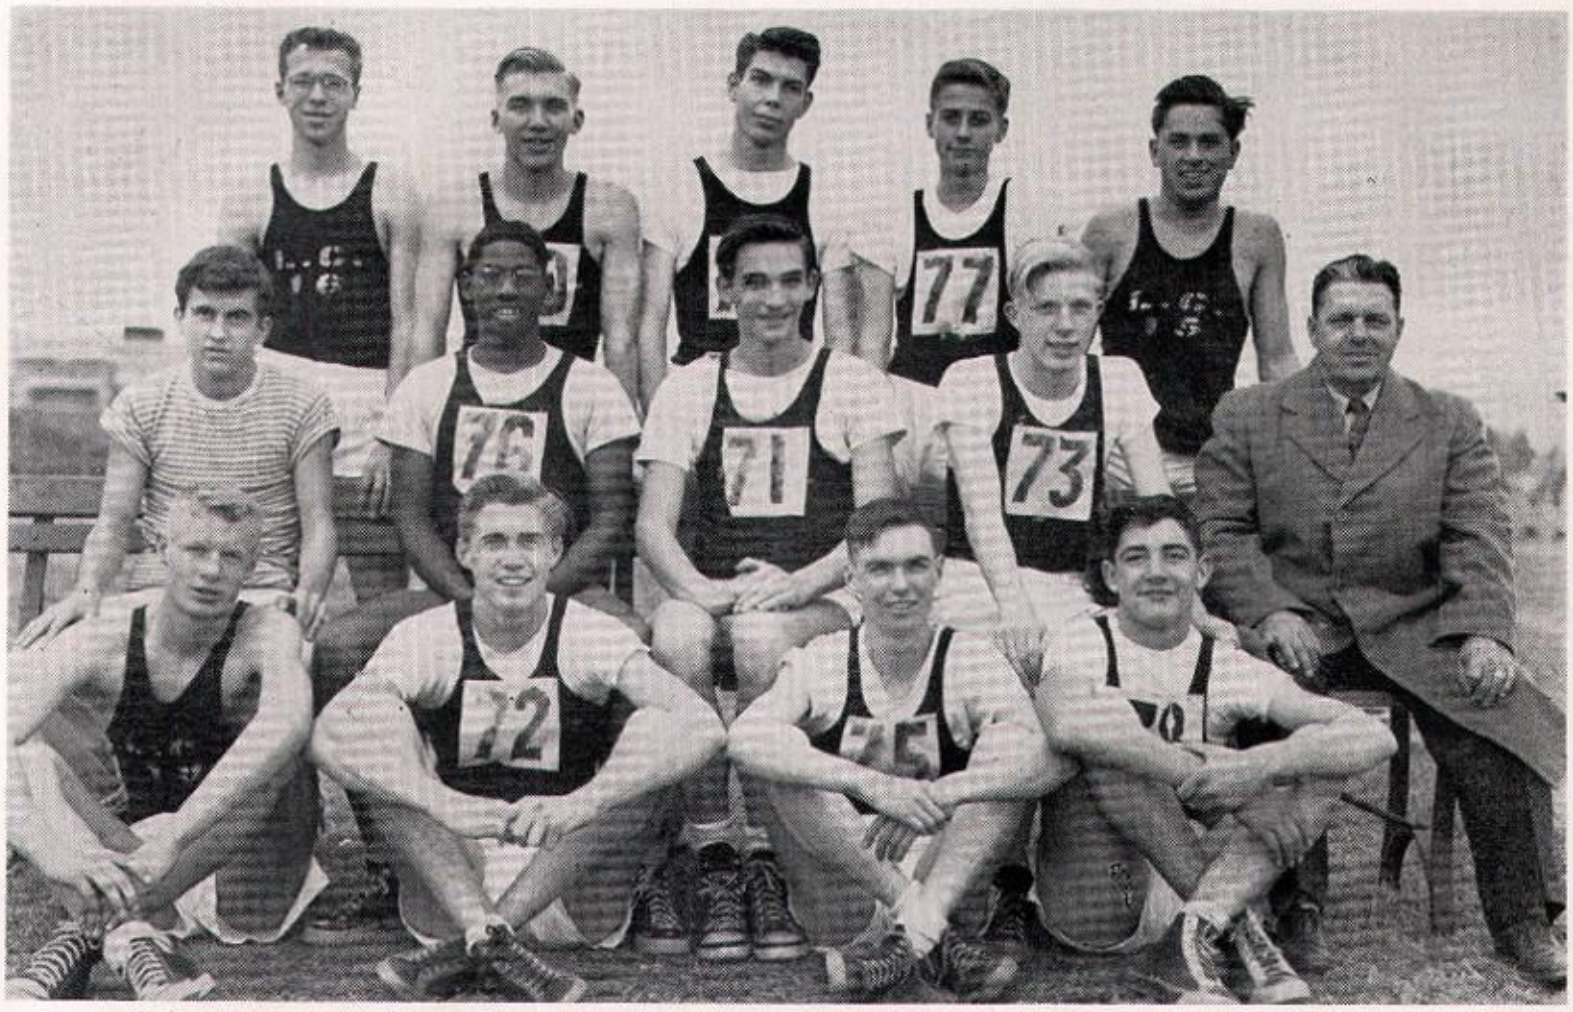
Cross Country Places Second



Taking three out of their five meets of the 1949 cross country season, the Lewis and Clark team took second place behind North Central's team. The team was sparked by their captain, Carl Olson.

First Row: Frank Featherman, Barry Jones, Bob McNally, and John Reehl.
Second Row: Bill Davis, manager, Herb Jones, Clarence Poppe, George Walters, and Art Frey, coach.
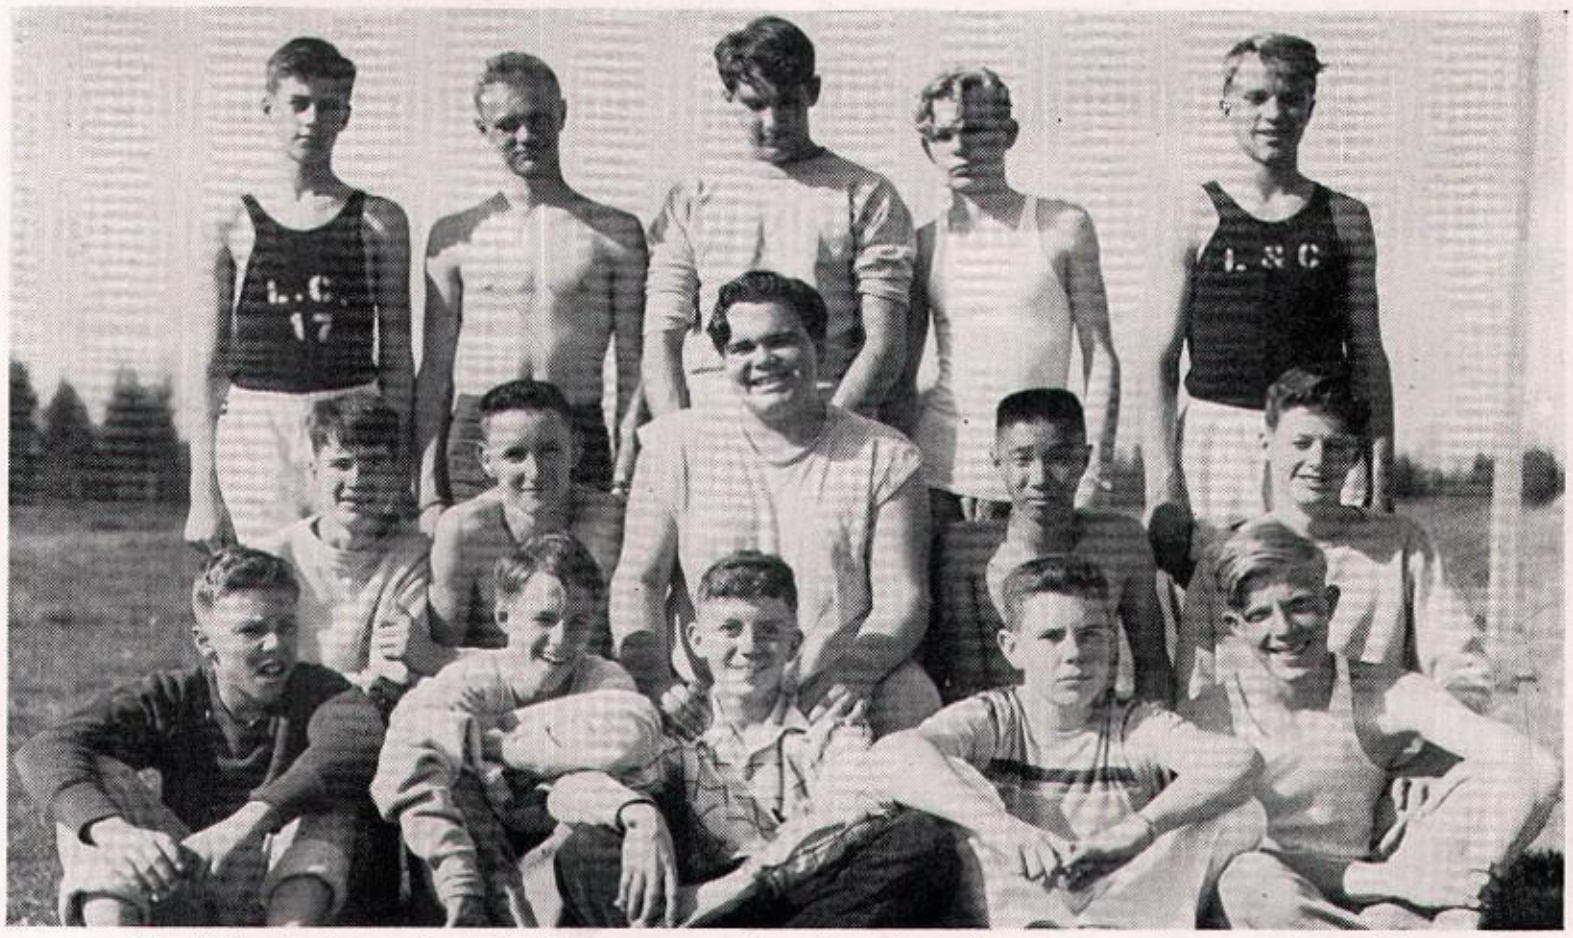
Third Row: Ernie Ruehl, Howard Reynolds, Carl Olson, Gordon Ruehl, and Neil Cochran.

Frosh Track Team Are Champs



The Kitten trackmen, in their 1949 season, took each of their three meets with outstanding ability and scores to take the championship.

First Row: Bruce White, Mike Kalez, Don Trueblood, Dave Clack, and George Walters.
Second Row: Ted Allen, Roger Williams, Wayne Spence, Leo Goto, and Dick Poole.
Third Row: Gordon Ruehl, Paul Brown, John Plastino, Swede Ruud, and Jim Senna.

Girls' Tennis Team Is Spring Champion

The spring season city tennis championship fell to Lewis and Clark. The girls then went on to take the Inland Empire championship.

The fall season was taken by North Central, while Lewis and Clark came in at a very close second place.

The two captains were Betty Lou Frey and Helene Van Tyne, and Eve Nolan was the manager.

First Row: Peggy Smith, Joy Thrailkill, Eve Nolan, Lorraine Allgaier, and Diane Simonson.

Second Row: Wilma Thomas, Gretchen Weed, Peggy Dibbley, Barbara Beeman, Joyce Litch, and Leah Wurzberg.

Third Row: Miss Doris Popple, coach, Ruth Sumihiro, Helen Ehtee, Betty Lou Frey, Peggy McMahen, and Betty Steen.

Girls' Golf Team, Second in City

The 1949 spring season city championship was taken by the Lewis and Clark team by defeating North Central in their one match.

In their only match in the fall golf season the girls' team lost to North Central, leaving them in second place. Barbara Coleman was the captain-manager of the team.

First Row: Grace Burns, Barbara Coleman, and Cora Dee Peterson.

Second Row: Helen Weissenborn, Carol Dullanty, and Connie Oldershaw.

Third Row: Polly Bell, Marianne Mercer, Jill Peck, and Barbara Devine.

Volleyball Team Ties for Championship

The interschool volleyball team was beaten only once in the 1949 season. The girls took the other three games for a tie in the city championship with Libby Junior high school.

First Row: Dawn Nita Boyd, Fern Snow, Maxine Patnin, and Irene Faire.

Second Row: Marjory Lakewold, Frances Snow, Dwyla Seehorn, Marjory Barlow, and Miss Virginia Danke, coach.

Intramural Volleyball Team

The five intramural volleyball teams competed against each other for nine weeks during the 1949 season. The winning team, the Danke Specials, won seven out of nine games.

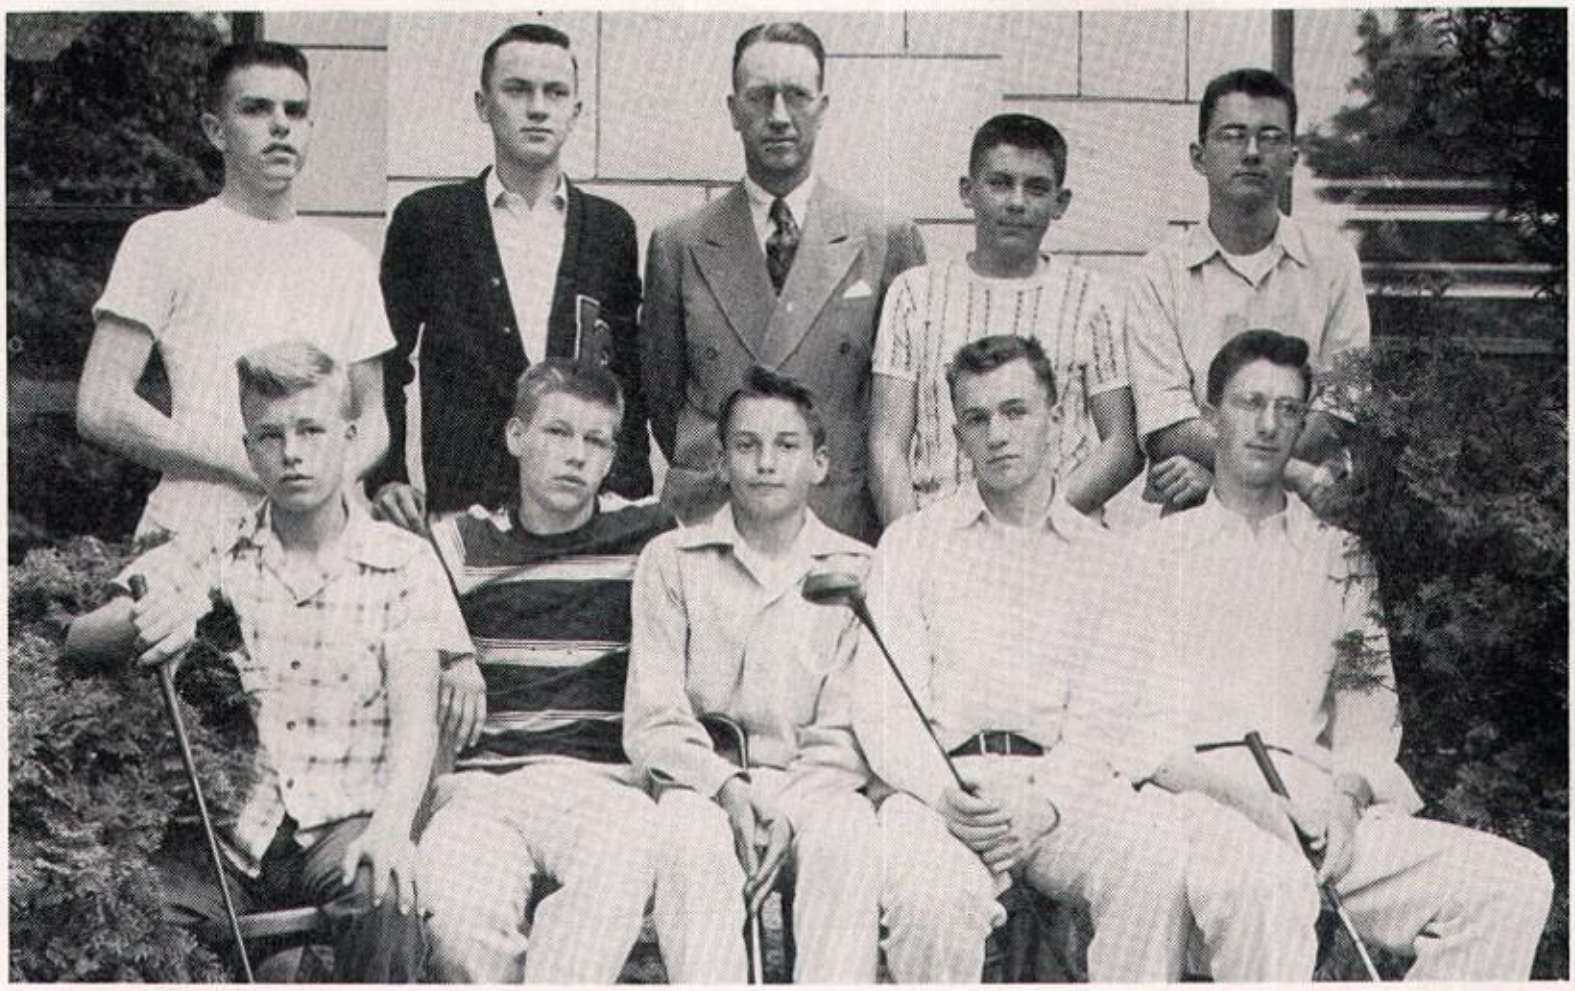
First Row: Arlene Okawa, Nancy Fijita, Margaret Walker, Ruth Newmiller, Claudia Shane, Fern Snow, and Dorothy Charvat.

Second Row: Shirley Cornelius, Arlene Lundberg, Joyce Latham, Serena Duffy, Claudette Toupin, Dwyla Seehorn, Dawn Nita Boyd, and Pat Johnson.

Third Row: Cleonne Miller, Shirley Fredericks, Sharlee McLaughlin, Barbara Helliwell, Marjory Lakewold, Norma Martinson, Luella Christensen, Doris Stephens, and Irene Faire.

Fourth Row: Petrea Giles, Suzy Kirkham, Losi Smith, Marjory Barlow, Betty Pflug, Joanne Pflug Catherine Robey, Beverly Achenboch, Frances Snow, and Maxine Patnin.

Boys' Golf Team Comes in Second



In their 1949 fall season the Lewis and Clark golf squad came in second place, behind North Central, by losing two of the four matches they played.

First Row: Bob Mueser, Don Hart, Bob Morris, Jim Joy, and Tom Mott.

Yell Queens Are Peppy

Lack of boys in the cheerleading lines was unusual for the '49 fall season. However, school spirit was much improved over the previous season due to the peppy cheerleading of these seven yell queens. They were the sparkplugs of all the games and all the pep convocations.

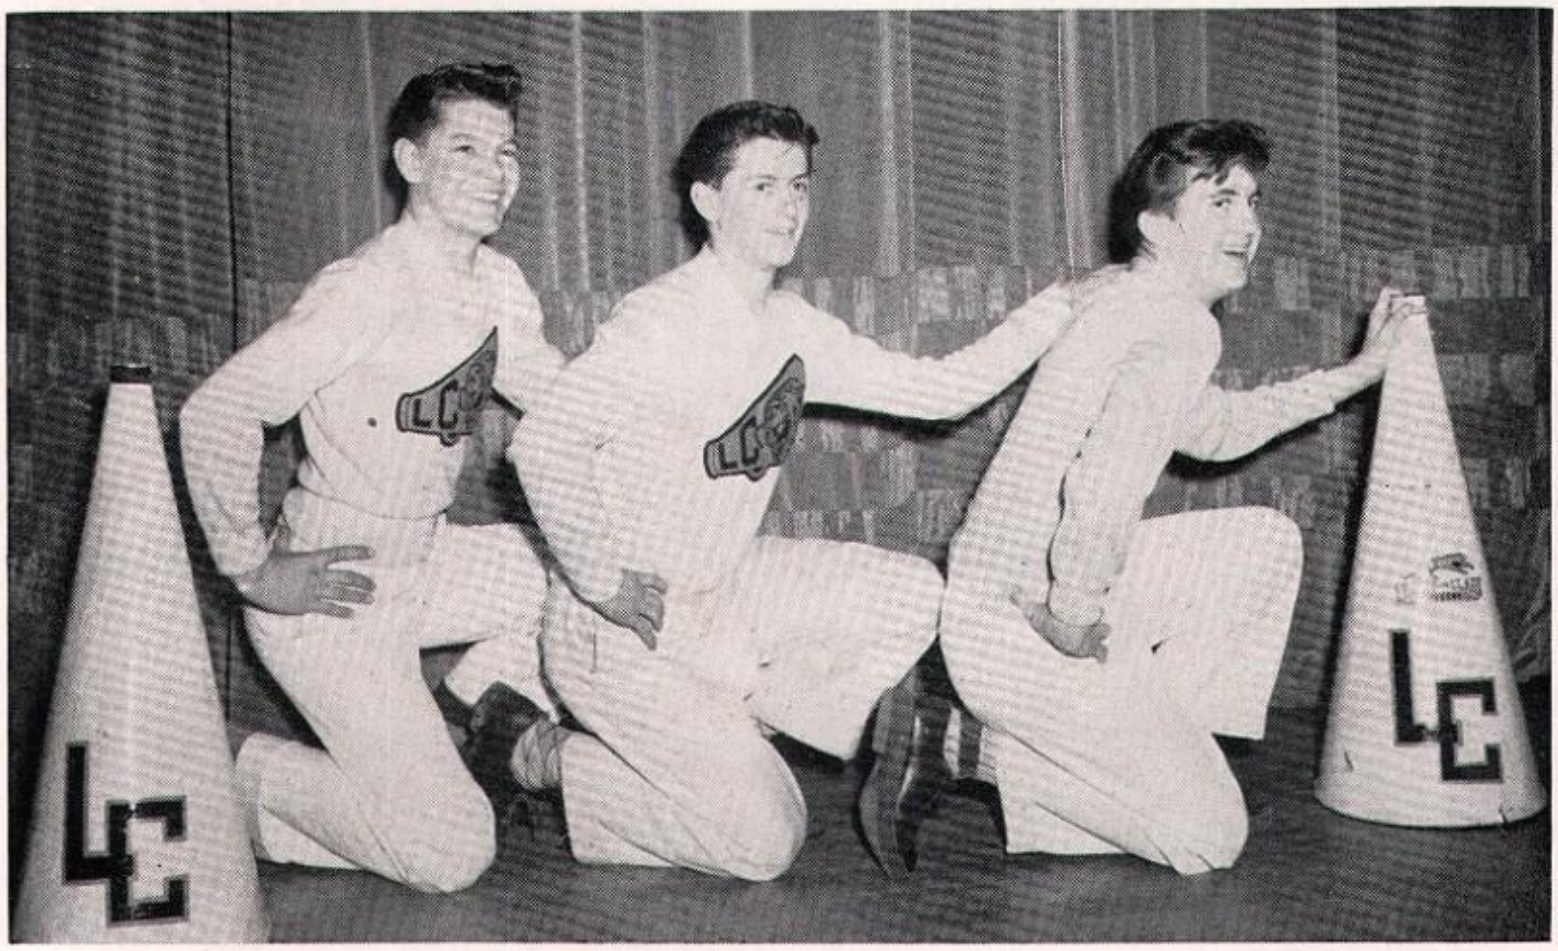
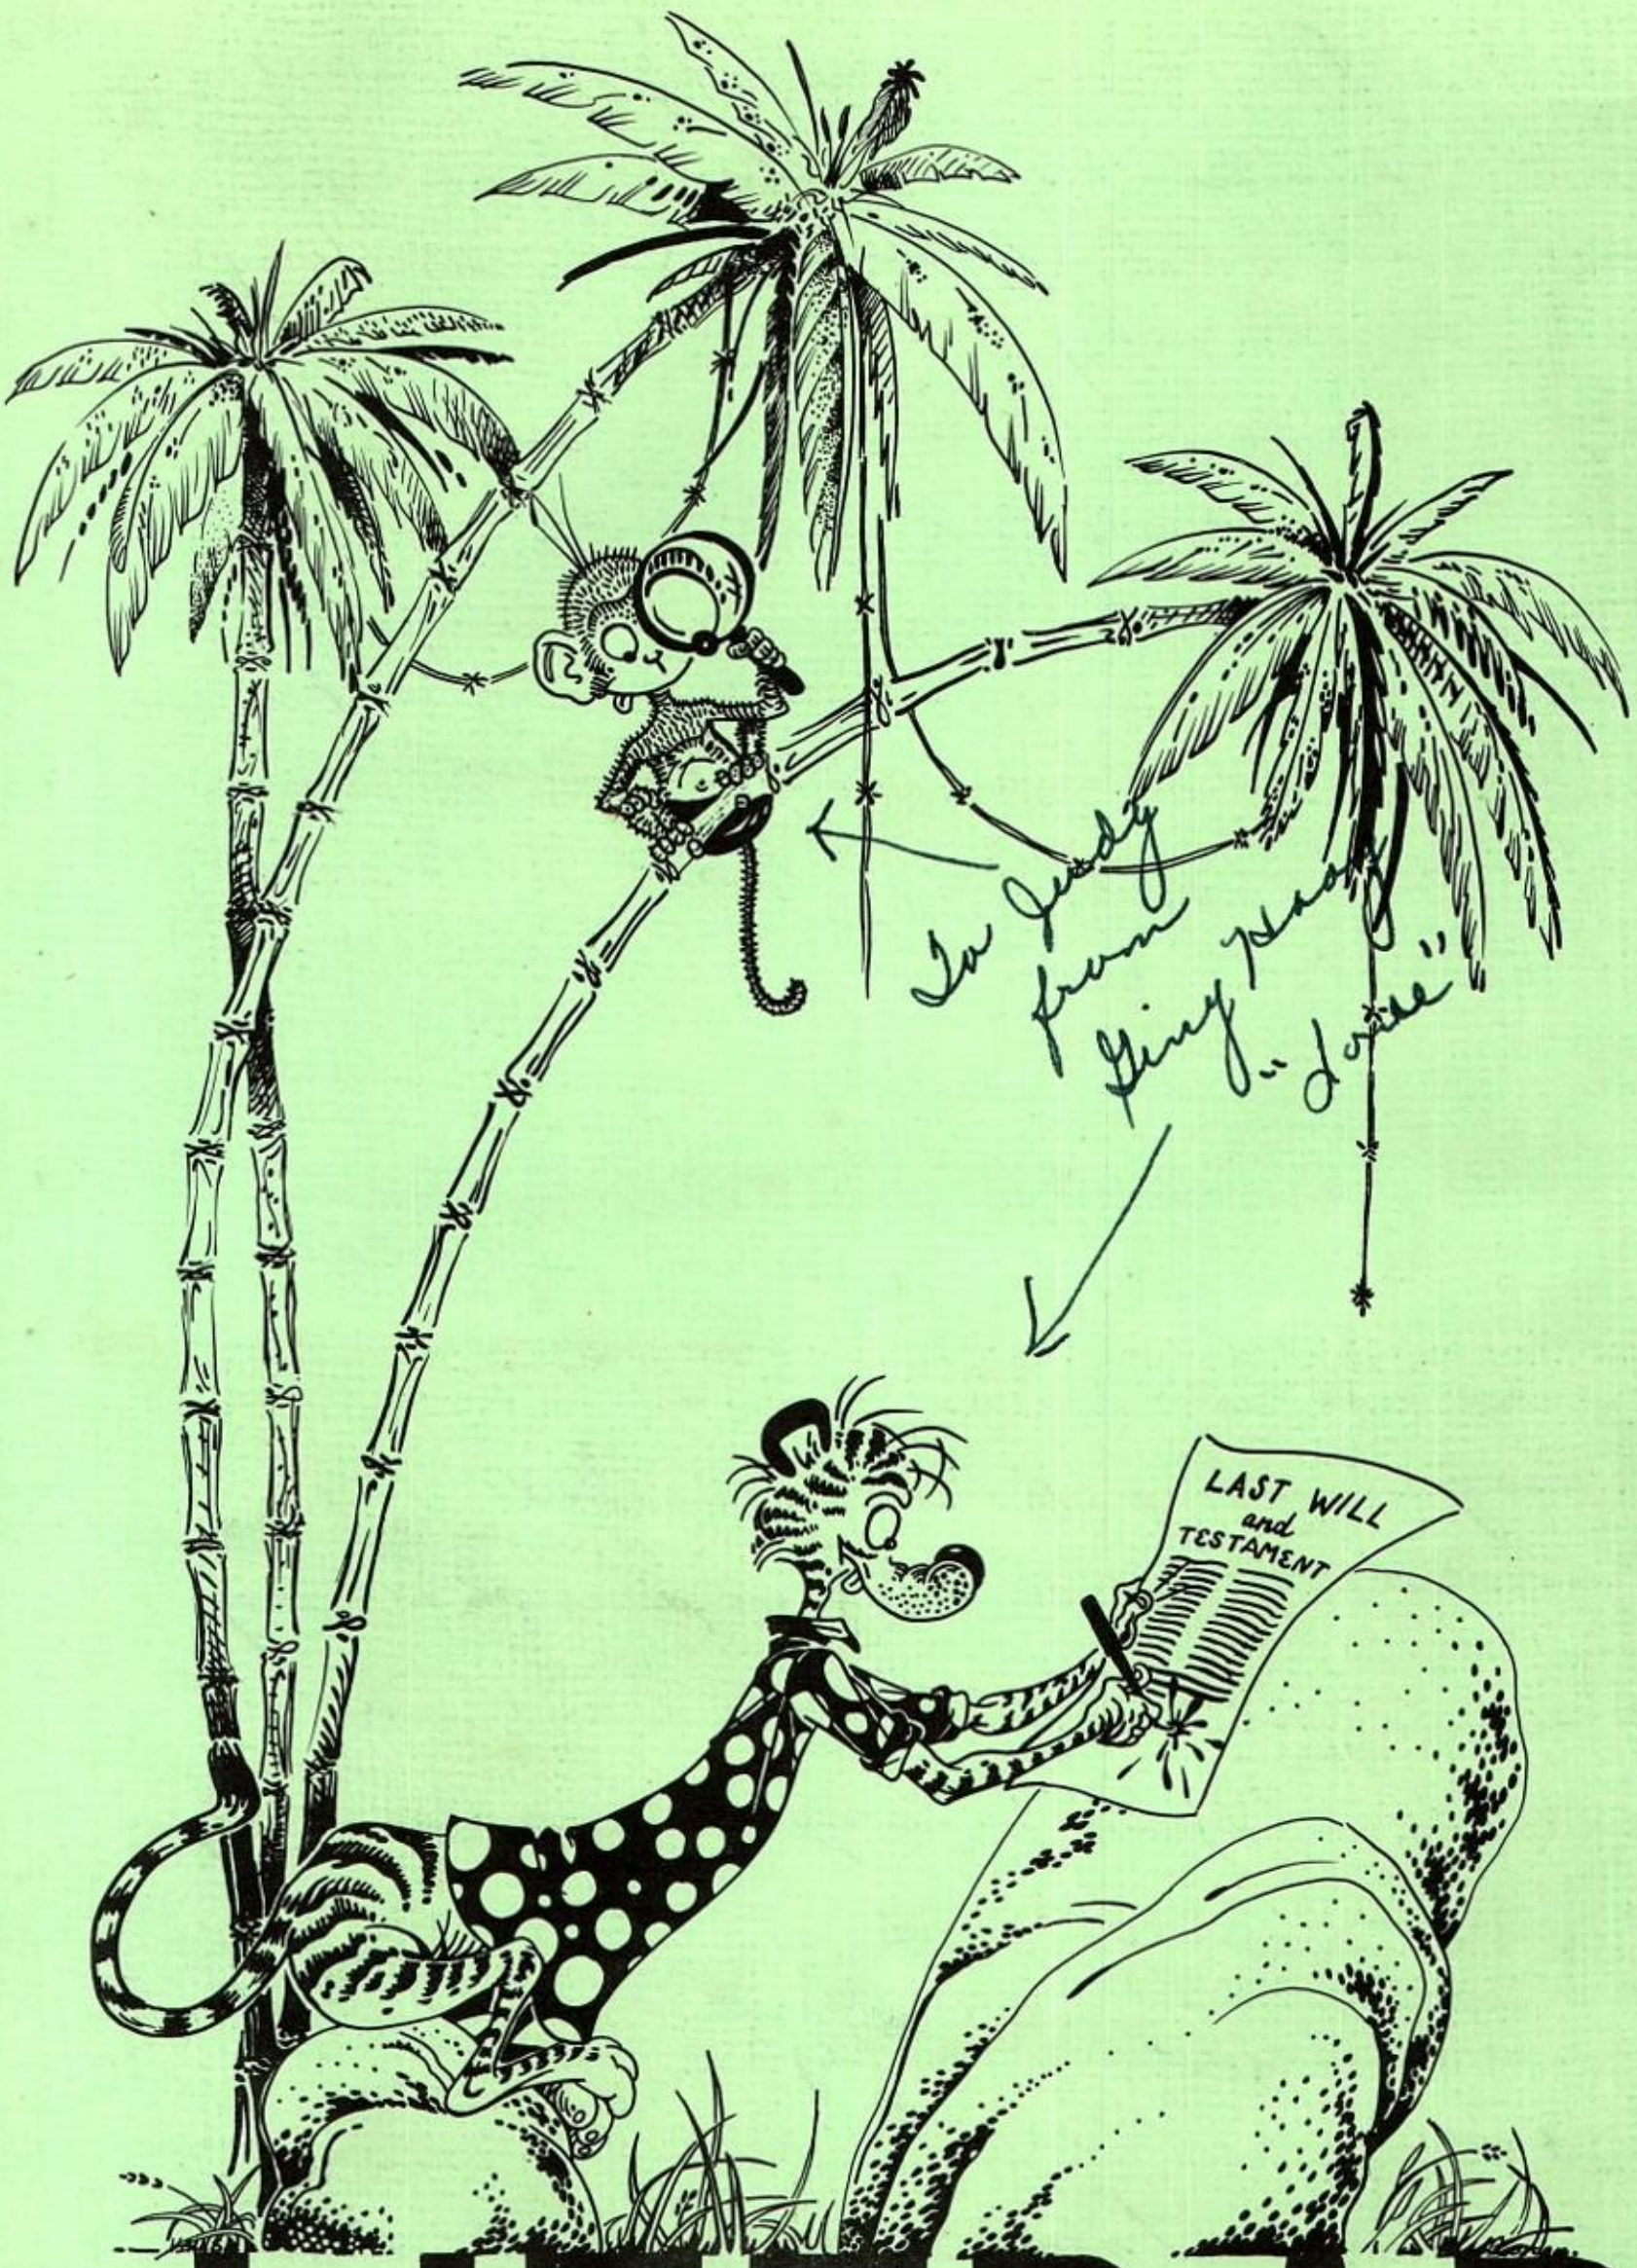
Boy Leaders Spark Basketball Games



The boys' side of the cheering section came to life under the able directing movements of these three boys. The basketball games of the 1950 season were sparked by their vigorous antics. Myron Westercam, Don Murray, and Bill Davis.



LITERARY

Dear Judy,

ya'll are just so awfully generous (I don't think that thats the way you spell it. Check while I'm writing this on the literary page.

okay:

Judy, I think that you are the sweetest, nicest, most darling, cutest (and oh ever so many other things) girl that I ever knew. Thats the biggest lie I ever told. are you happy. Have fun. May Day. Don't do anything you shouldn't now, like going to the lake for example.

Wasn't that sweet of him to give us so much time this morning. Boy he's a peach. I don't know of any thing to say to you that I don't say about a million times every day anyway. "No Lie I don't"

Good Luck always, ya'll need it.

Love you'll Mary.

January Class Will

We the January class of 1950, being of doubtful mind and weak body, do hereby will and bequeath to those unlucky souls who are not graduating our most treasured possessions and memories.

To Betty Lou Fry, Joyce Litch leaves her famous tennis ability. Linda Devine leaves Mr. Perring to the nearest undertaker. The L.C. Romeo, Rodger Estes, leaves himself to Barbara Pilant. Albert Andrews leaves algebra 3 to Don Shertey. Katherine Kirkham gives the Arden Dairy to the little milk lover, Edward Larabee. To Frank Burrows, Keith Swenson and Chan Chandler, Dick Larson leaves the Slab Inn. Marie McArdle bequeaths her fourth-floor locker to Ginger Cowling. To Kenny Thompson, Don Rafferty leaves his welding. One of his nights in Coeur d'Alene, Bob Pierson wills to Jim Clark and Ted Lott. Dawn Swan gives to Duke Shannon the Eagles in the good old summer time. Neil Cochran, who has so much to give, leaves his sweat pants to Ernie Ruehl and his good (ha) looks to Gary Gilbert. Barbara Knudson leaves all her borrowed stuff to Nick McPhee. To Ted Wright, Don Kendrick leaves his car. Jack Kulp leaves his well worn but still useful steering knob to some aspiring fool. Dorothy Bruton and Carol Rutherford get Donna Hopper's luck in going steady. Beverly Spencer's chair in social relations goes to Barbara Beeman. Jan Stevenson wills her vast knowledge of Latin to Mike Kallis, who really needs it. Mr. Graham, the lucky man, gets Jean Stroh's personality. Gordon Vails leaves control of his pencil to Cathy Stone.

Lois Vallance leaves Larry Mack to Donna Belle Tye, with all her love. To Jack Smith and "Pants" Crandall, Bob Williams wills his "good" looks and his Bull Durham tobacco. Any frosh track star who needs them may have Howard Reynolds' orange longies. Hazelgene Butler gets Karen Spaeth's last stick of Doublemint Gum. Jeanne Smith wills her smile to Mr. Miller to cheer him up when things go wrong on the Journal, and Mr. Minard to Virginia Haag. Any straight A student who wants another A to add to his collection may have the only one Dwyla Seehorn ever got. Jean Sage wills her paste brush in the library to Jack Echaus. Dina Salagianis bequeaths her curly hair to Jean Scott. Judy Ashley's little brother, Pete, gets his sister's ability to get good grades out of Mr. Miller in biology. Don Ayer bequeaths himself to anyone who wants him. Leroy Tarbert gets Tommy Power's ability to get any girl he wants. Dick Rush bequeaths his popular proctor post to Bill Davenny. Helene Van Tyne wills her hair to another baldy, Leah Wurzburg. Vivian Poston wills her ability to take a fall to anyone who wants it.

To Janet McNair, Launce Macomber wills his expert badminton playing and he hopes she will appreciate it. Joyce McCormick wills her slowness to Lois Bush. Don Marx bequeaths his levi's to Tom Hill. (Hope they fit.) Jim Morris leaves his ski craziness to Dave Clack or anyone else who can organize a ski club in L.C. Barbara Beeman inherits from Leta Herrington the proctor post in the southwest corner of the first floor. Jack Baldwin is willed a can of ox blood shoe polish by Dick Hendriksen. Lois Hengen leaves her embarrassed blushes to Marilyn Jones. To Paul Bryan, Lillian Bryan wills her talent of getting to school on time. Beverly Clepper's golfing ability is willed to Connie Oldershaw, who really needs it. All those lucky nights at poker, Chuck Fischer wills to Stan Marks. Georgia Bryan's ability to forge signatures goes to Roger Riggs. His famous ability to stay in school from Tom Garvin to Walter Hedlund. Pat Gation wills Mr. Orcutt's teasing to Betty Patrick. Cathy Geddis leaves her two years in Glee Club to Connie Toupin. Barbara Zerbach inherits from Madelyn Graybill her beautiful singing voice. Ha, ha! Anyone interested in boys can have Delores Griffith's proctor post outside the boys' gym sixth period. Laura Herrington leaves her proctor post in the northwest corner of the third floor to anyone who can't get a better one.

Bill Davenny can have Mr. Fuller, with the compliments of Jack Miller. Howard Lampson may have the rusty old cannon in back of John Peterson's garage. The pretty "red" hair Anita Pohl has, goes to Candy Nelson. Ed McDowell leavest the shortest five pencils in drawing to Max Davis. To Bob Bailey goes Dianne Parmeter's American history notebook and Hall of Fame. Jeannine Johnson inherits from Barbara Poston the ability to drive a car.

Congratulations...
Class of 1950

Dear Judy,
It has been fun having you in Spanish this last year. Next year we will be graduating (I hope.) Loads of luck in the future.

January Class Prophecy

Gracefully the chartered plane of Pilot Dianne Parmeter circled the field just outside the secluded village of Tigerville-on-the-Amazon. As it was landing, the single passenger, Circus Agent Linda Devine anticipated her talent search with grave doubts.

Goes to Meet Public Officials

At the airport she took a cab driven by Dwyla Seehorn to the city hall, where A.P. Foreign Correspondent Don Kendrick sat in the front office discussing Harry Carter's butterfly business with Butterfly Catcher Don Ayer and Jan Stevenson, tax reduction adviser to the Democrats.

Upon inquiry she was told that perhaps Karen Spaeth, dirt collector, Marie McArdle, garbage collector, or Cathy Geddis, federal mediator of the city hall hall proctors, could help her. At the same time these three were in the inner office discussing a new referendum bill with Ed McDowell, the local guillotine operator, Dick Larson, liquor inspector, formerly from Idaho, Bob Pierson, street cleaner, and Nita Pohl, federal treasurer.

Linda was told that Protection Racketeers Al Andrews and Jack Kulp or Magician Howard Reynolds could probably help her as they should know of some pretty good acts. Reynolds, they said, was currently featured at the Rainbow-on-the-Amazon with his cute little assistant, Jeanne Smith, as the team of "The Magnificent Reynoldo, World's Greatest Magician, and Jeannie the Magic Maid." Then she learned that for animals, she ought to consult Jungle Explorers: Joyce Litch, Barbara Poston, Vivian Poston, and Barbara Knudson.

Meets Prominent Citizens

While making calls upon these prominent local citizens, Linda learned of several residents who were connected with show business. They included Beverly Clepper and Polly Bell, circus contortionists; Laura Herrington, burlesque queen; Kathrine Kirkham, torch singer, and Hat Freeman Wrestler, John Peterson. She made plans to interview these artists with the hope that they would fit into her show.

Since her talent hunt seemed to be progressing better than she had hoped, Linda decided to make a sight-seeing tour of the village. She had gone but a few steps when she met an old friend, Dick Rush, a traveling salesman for the Tigerville Lolypop company. When he learned of her business in Tigerville, Dick offered to assist in the talent search, and offered to escort her on her sight-seeing tour.

See Old Friends

Their first stop was the office of the manufacturers of Gunny-Sack Hermit suits, designed exclusively for the Tigerville factory by Nick McPhee, the town's most eligible bachelor. The two were advised by the receptionist, Margie Gard, that the board of directors, including such leading citizens as Gordon Vails, Launce Macomber, and Bud Miller, were interviewing applicants for the position as head of the department where the seams in tight levis are let out. First in the waiting line was Don Marx. The trio, anxious to chat with their old friends, hired Don and extended to Dick and Linda an invitation to dine with them at Dick Henriksen's famous night club, the Jungle Bungle.

They insisted on making it that evening because featured on the program was the Frankie Laine of the Amazon, Crooner Doug Nash. After making a date for that night, Linda and Dick continued on their way.

As they strolled down the palm-lined avenue, they came first to the used car lot of "Mad Madeline" Graybill. Their old friend was busy selling a shiny '29 Model A to an enthusiastic native, Bob Williams, who had just discovered a uranium mine. Not wanting to bother her, they went on and came to the mechanic shop of Georgia Bryan, where she, her sister, Lillian, and Beverly Spencer operated a flourishing hot rod parts business.

Enter Super Market

In the next block was the village market place, where the native street venders gathered. The biggest stand of all was owned by Helen Van Tyne, who sold match sticks to all of Tigerville. Dina Salagianis operated a flourishing popcorn stand, and near her, Roger Estes displayed his paintings as a front for his work as a bookie. Kenneth Hicks operated a fabulous super market.

Deciding to take a look around, our heroine and her escort entered the super market and came upon Don Rafferty busily sweeping the aisles. A little grim man with a carnation in his buttonhole stood in a corner in front of the Grape-Nuts Flakes stand. Realizing he was the floorwalker, they went to greet him. Only then did they recognize him as Charles Fischer. He suggested that they visit the demonstration on the second floor.

Watch Demonstration

It sounded interesting, so they proceeded to watch Delores Griffith illustrate the good points of the reducing pill she had invented. Modeling as the "before" was none other than Tom Hill, the "after" Bones Garvin.

Linda hired Tom to stand in for the circus Fat Lady, then purchased a bottle of the magical pills just in case she ever got his lunch by mistake. Then she and Dick went back into the street, where Joyce McCormic, with the aid of Jim Morris and the hindrance of Ensley Rofinot, was sweeping the refuse from the street under the rug of Lois Hengen's tobacco auctioneering stand.

The sun was sinking into the sea, and our friends realized that time was running short, so they hastened toward the night club. They hailed Dwyla's cab. Then as they drove toward the Jungle Bungle, a large group engaged in an argument on the high school football field attracted Linda's attention.

Breaks Up Fight

"Look, Dick," she said, "isn't that Donna Hooper and Dawnn Swan coaching?" Hoping to straighten out the trouble, Dick jumped out of the cab and hurried to the center of the field. When he appeared, the coaches forgot their differences, to inform him that, of his old classmates, Lois Vallance and Pat Gation were teaching chemistry and mathematics in the school; Tom Powers, they said, was directing the Music department, Neil Cochran had just come from the States to teach ballet, Judi Ashley was coach of the champion swimming team, and Leta Herrington had charge of the nursery.

"Oh, my gosh," said Dick suddenly, "it's almost time to meet Launce. Let's get going!"

Arrive at Club

They arrived at the club a few minutes later, and were met by Jean Stroh, maitre D', who led them to the table occupied by Launce, Gordon, and Bud. Adele Grover, waiter, suggested to them the special Tiger steak being offered that evening in honor of Doug's appearance, by Chef Jean Sage. As soon as they gave their order, Cigarette Girl Marianne Mercer approached. Behind her was a very glamorously bedecked creature, whom they recognized as Marline Berlat. She informed them that she was president of a lonely hearts club, and had promised to meet here Oil Tycoon Bill Henderson. When, after dinner, dancing, and finishing the business of the talent search, he had still not arrived, they drove Marline and Linda home.

Early the next day Linda collected her performers and boarded her plane for New York.

Dear Judy, In all my life I have never felt so very honored as I do now that Judy Halton (Judith Lee Halton that is) would actually ask me to write in her book. Please excuse the words I've used since my diction consists of "Hi Toots" and "Let me have a Coke". I'll just manage to struggle through this time — & I do hope you have much happiness for always. I think you would make a good secretary. Give her a job, that's all I ask. Best of luck, see you in Virginia Beach, Va. Phone 2-6969 Address it to Hollywood & Vine & you'll get it. Sincerely yours, Jerry Lewis

Dear Judy —
Well cutie how are you —
I can just see you this summer trying to teach those little girls how to swim etc- 24 girls drown —
Seriously Judy I think you are a wonderful girl and you really have what it takes to go far in life.
